LENTEN REGULATIONS

Everyone 14 years of age or over is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday and all the Fridays of Lent. All from the age of 18 years up to the beginning of their 60th year are bound to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. On these two days of fast and abstinence, only one full meatless meal is allowed. Two other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted on these two days, but liquids, including milk and fruit juices are allowed. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige. To disregard completely the law of fast and abstinence is seriously sinful. Lent is the principal season of penance in the Church year. All of the faithful are strongly urged to develop and follow a program of voluntary self-denial (in addition to following the Lenten regulations), serious prayer, and a performance of works of charity and mercy.

On behalf of the Knights of Columbus and the Americans of Italian Descent, we would like to thank all those involved in making the St. Joseph Table the wonderful success it was. We could not do it without you. God Bless.

A Way of the Cross for the Victims of Abortion

On a bleak Friday afternoon, our savior Jesus Christ was crucified at Golgotha, "the place of the skull."

Today, we have our own Golgotha: the abortion clinic, where 2,000 years after the Crucifixion, His image is violently destroyed, again and again, by abortion.

Through His Holy Passion, Our Lord united Himself with all innocent victims of suffering and cruelty through the ages—and none is more innocent than the child killed in the womb.

*This Good Friday join your fellow pro-lifers at Golgotha—the abortion clinic
in your community—to offer an ecumenical "Way of the Cross for Victims of Abortion."*

Pontifical Good Friday Collection 2023

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land, where they are now less than 2% of the population. Your support is essential to help the Church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools, and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines of Christianity, including in Jerusalem, Nazareth, and Bethlehem, to name only a few. The pandemic hit Christians in the Holy Land particularly hard. Most of them depend on pilgrimages for work.

In these times, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land and to maintain a Christian presence where the Church was born. PLEASE BE GENEROUS! For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.custodia.org and www.myfranciscan.org.

Question: Where do Palm Sunday palms come from and where should they go?

Answer: The Palm Sunday celebration has ancient origins. Beginning the liturgy “outside” the church, we symbolically reenact Christ’s entry into Jerusalem. The crowds in ancient Israel waved palm branches—a symbol of royalty—to welcome Jesus. These days, obtaining palms takes a lot of planning and coordination, as hundreds of thousands of churches worldwide need them on the same day! Many in the United States order palms from Florida, California, Texas, or Central America. Many companies stress the sustainability of their production and the just wages paid to their workers.

The palms used on Palm Sunday are blessed at Mass. This means they shouldn’t end up in the trash! Many people weave palms into crosses or families display them in their homes. If you do not plan on displaying your palms throughout the year, they should be burned, buried, or left at the church. In the final case, the palms are burned to provide the ashes for next year’s Ash Wednesday service.

The volunteers, staff, and families of the Religious Education Program would like to wish everyone a most blessed Holy Week and Easter.

Please use the following reflection to help your family celebrate Palm Sunday. Palm, or Passion, Sunday begins the most sacred week of the Church year—Holy Week. During these days, we prepare ourselves for Easter by prayerful reflection upon the events of Jesus' Passion and death. You might display a crucifix in a prominent place this week, as reminder of the salvation Christ won for us. The crucifix can also be the focal point for family prayer during Holy Week. Because of the length and complexity of the Passion narrative, young children have difficulty remaining attentive when it is proclaimed in its entirety. Families can choose to read a portion of this Sunday's Gospel each day of Holy Week, providing ample opportunity for children to ask questions and respond to the events described there. In this way, the entire week can become a "way of the cross." Each day during Holy Week, the family can gather in a prayerful space with a crucifix as the focal point. After reading from the Gospel each night, the family might reflect on the reading together. Conclude your prayer time together by praying the Lord's Prayer and/or singing an appropriate hymn, such as "Jesus, Jesus," "Were You There?" or "What Wondrous Love Is This."

Jesus' divinity is always a reality—and the readings of Holy Week draw our attention to Jesus' humanity in particular ways. Over the coming days, the church invites us to accompany our brother Jesus on his journey to Jerusalem. The liturgies of Holy Week offer chances to feel with Jesus and his disciples—the palm branches waving in the streets, the water that washed over our feet, the bread and wine shared in memory of Christ, the wood of the cross. We can also feel the difficult emotions that may have welled within Jesus during his final days—sadness over saying goodbye to his beloved disciples, loneliness from a friend's betrayal, anguish over his impending death. These core elements of Holy Week, both the tangible objects and the emotions, are central to human life. Our God knows them intimately.

As we celebrate the Eucharist today, let us give thanks for Jesus and his great gift of self. Let us each consider how we might journey with Jesus during this holiest of weeks.

Office Hours: Tuesday-Friday, 8am-2:30pm

Palm/Passion Sunday is the only time in the liturgical year when we have two Gospels proclaimed in Mass. The reason for this is to give us a full, contrasting view of the last days of Jesus on earth. We experience not only the great love that the people had for him, but also how humanity can easily reject God. Jesus enters Jerusalem to great admiration on a beast of burden—the burden of our sins. Then, as jealousy and fear come to those people in “power” who feared losing their standing and lifestyle, they handed him over for his death. But his death is a victory, as Jesus himself carries the same burden of sin to Calvary in obedience to the Father. This great act of self-sacrifice opens the gates of heaven and brings forth the salvation of all those who believe.

The days of the Triduum are the greatest in the life of the Church. As you attend the commemoration of the Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Christ, you are present through these events. By being present, a greater appreciation and understanding of our faith unfolds.

If you have never attended the fullness of the Triduum, I invite you to do so. We are called to walk with our Lord Jesus every day, and once a year we have the opportunity to truly walk with him as he reaches the completion of his earthly mission. This is the same mission that we received when we were baptized—the mission of revealing the presence of God through our lives so others may come to know the eternal love and forgiveness that is offered to all people.

What's your car? Let's say it's a fancy silver Toyota. Now imagine you're having lunch in a restaurant and suddenly see two men outside attempting to steal it. You run outside and confront them. They respond, "The master has need of it." How do you respond? Would you just let them take it, and leave you without a car? I don't think I would. Yet that is precisely what the owners of the colt on Palm Sunday do. Stunningly, and perhaps a little comically, Jesus instructs two of his disciples to commandeer a colt for him to ride. And when they hear the disciples say, "The master has need of it," they let them take it. Of course, Jesus knew they'd let it go. He gave them the grace to let go of what is rightfully theirs. The result? That colt became perhaps the most famous and important animal ever. The beast plays a role in the redemption of the world. As Holy Week begins, Jesus perhaps will send people to you to ask for something valuable to you. Perhaps it's your car. More likely it's something like your attention, time, or energy. It's natural to resist at first. We've got things to do, after all. But if the interruption is from Jesus himself, listen to that voice which calmly says, "The master has need of it." And simply let it go. You'll be amazed what the master will do with it. (Father John Muir)

Deborah Neuman

Our sympathy to her friends and family.

Jesus Christ shows us how to be humble today. So humble, that he "emptied himself." This brought on entry into Jerusalem, passion, death, burial, and risen life.

- ♦ How will I, an empty and humble self, do some mercy work this Holy Week?
- ♦ How will I be a sign of humility to the elect preparing for Baptism at week's end?
- ♦ Let me save the times and come to be Church for the celebrations of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Holy Saturday, and Easter.

Baptism Information: Baptisms are celebrated on the second & fourth Sunday of each month. A pre-Baptism program must be attended by the parents. Please call the rectory to register for a program.

Marriage Information: Please call the rectory to make arrangements at least six months (a year is preferred) in advance of the wedding date. It is recommended you do not rent reception facilities until your wedding date is confirmed with the pastor. Your preferred wedding date may be unavailable, and we do not want you to lose your deposit with the reception venue.

Parish Registration: New families are welcome and are asked to register at the rectory. Also, previously registered parishioners are asked to notify us of any address changes.

Emergency Sick or Anointing Calls: Please notify us immediately of any serious illness in your family. If you have a hospitalized loved one who would like a visit, please call the rectory with contact information since the hospitals and hospices no longer notify parishes. Please do not wait until the last minute to have someone anointed. There are always accidents/emergencies, but sometimes there is less panic when the anointing can be done prior to someone passing.

We now have available low-gluten hosts which make it possible for people who have celiac disease or allergies to wheat or gluten to be able to receive communion. If you have celiac disease or an allergy to wheat or gluten, please let us know before Mass so that arrangements can be made for you to be able to receive communion at Mass.
