Be a sign of mercy.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

On August 14, 2021, a powerful earthquake measuring 7.2 on the Richter scale struck within 100 miles of the Haitian capital of Port-au-Prince. More than 2,000 people were killed, 12,000 were injured, and 300 were missing. Then widespread damage to houses and other structures was worsened by a tropical storm that hit the island shortly afterward. In responding to the urgent needs of the victims of these disasters, Pope Francis donated €200,000 through the Vatican's Dicastery for Promoting Integral Human Development to support immediate emergency relief efforts in the most affected dioceses in Haiti.

Your contribution to the Peter's Pence collection helps fund not only all the activities of the dicasteries of the Roman Curia that assist the pope in the exercise of his ministry but also a number of solidarity projects that aid those most in need. To learn more about the ways in which this collection supports the Holy Father's ministry of mercy, visit <https://www.obolodisanpietro.va/en/cos-e-l-obolo.html> (English) or <https://www.obolodisanpietro.va/es/cos-e-l-obolo.html> (español).

Please prayerfully consider supporting this year's collection as an act of mercy and charity. Join our brothers and sisters in faith from around the globe to help Pope Francis carry out his ministry to the Universal Church and reach out to the most marginalized in our world.

Thank you and may God bless you abundantly.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Ronald A. Hicks

Dear friends,

I wanted to take this opportunity to write a brief note to my St. Philip family in what is my last bulletin article at the parish. Twelve years ago I was hired as the Director of Religious Education following my good friend, Frank Giangregio. I knew from the start that this parish had the most wonderful parishioners of any I had worked with before. I felt immediately welcomed and many volunteers came forward to help me transition into my role. I was blessed to have Barb Nicolai as a friend and partner in the RE Office. Together we grew the RE Program from the strong roots it had and, along with an outstanding staff of volunteers, the program blossomed and flourished. I have loved working here and getting to know all of you. I have made so many friends. Thank you to each one of you who have touched my heart over the years. Thank you to the children and families I have ministered to. You will be forever in my prayers and happy memories. Thank you my dear friends—the catechists and aides who have been so devoted and loving. You give so much of yourselves—your time, your talents, and treasures and, most of all, you show the love of Christ to all the children who enter your doors each year. I have been continually awed and inspired by your deep faith and the joy you give so freely to the young people and their families.

My heart is open to what God has planned for me next! I am working on setting up an art studio for pottery, fiber, and paper art. I want to pursue a Certificate in Floristry and learn to design floral environments. I want to spend more time with my family, especially our grandchildren. Of course, we all know that we plan and God laughs! So let's see what happens! I will keep you in my prayers and in my thoughts, and I ask that you do the same for me. I will visit when I am able. Please stay in touch and let me know how you are doing. My email is nancymcknight714@gmail.com.

Finally, I would like to welcome Carol Schubert and Cathy Jaskey to the Religious Education Program. Shubie will be taking over my position as director, and Cathy will take Barb's position as administrative assistant for RE and the parish, including bulletin editor and webmaster. Please welcome them and help them in any way that you can.

With joy and gratitude,
Nancy

Once you get the retirement cake, you know there's no turning back! Granted, it's not really official until you actually eat the cake—and since Nancy is a conscientious eater who will not let a crumb of cake pass through her lips—and Barb will not let a slice of cake pass past her lips (or her hips, unfortunately) I ate her piece...and my own! So I guess that means I'm doubly retired, and she can unretire if she wants...but when I read through what she plans on doing in the future—wow!! My future plans include eating a popsicle while I sit in my backyard and watch the birds!! Not too impressive, but I am looking forward to it...

It has been my pleasure to work in the parish for 24 years—and if you love what you do, it's not really work. I have been truly fortunate to share an office with two awesome people—Frank and Nancy—who became my friends as well as co-workers. My paths have crossed with countless parishioners, school staff, volunteers in the RE Program, and parish staff, and I have always been impressed at the depth of your faith and your desire to share that faith with everyone you meet. Please welcome Cathy with open arms (as I know you will!) and enjoy her youth and enthusiasm for her new job. Would love to hear from you; my email address is brbli@comcast.net—but just give me a chance to wipe the sticky popsicle juice off my hands before I write back... Barb

The prophet Jeremiah was never one to hold back his feelings from God. His book of Scripture is filled with wailing and lamentations Jeremiah suffered betrayal and frustrations throughout his life—and he let God know it. Jeremiah bared his soul to God—the good, the bad and everything in between. Throughout this honesty, trust grew between the great prophet and God almighty. Jeremiah did not lash out for show. He came to believe God could handle anything stirring in his heart. Jeremiah saw God as a partner, one who “is with me, like a mighty champion.” We too can call upon God in every moment of our lives, even—and perhaps especially—the moments that are not so neat and tidy. God does not need to be protected from our trials. Rather God longs to draw ever closer to us just as God drew closer to Jeremiah and the great prophets throughout time. God can handle us. God wants to handle us. Jesus makes God’s close presence known to the disciples in today’s gospel. Our God is a God of abundance who creates and reveals all the time. We need only to pay attention. We need only to be honest. We need only to trust God’s great love for us.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

I have a necklace that originally belonged to my great-grandmother. I don’t really know much about the man who gave it to her, most of those details have been lost to time. But I know that he wanted to marry her, and that she refused, and it had something to do with religion — ultimately, he did not share her faith. And while I’ve certainly seen many interfaith couples have loving and successful marriages, in this particular case, my great-grandmother discerned that this would not be one of those marriages. Like I said, I don’t have many details about this man, but I know that she felt she couldn’t marry him because it might jeopardize the souls of her children, and therefore the souls of their children, and their children after them — me. She turned him down because of me. My great-grandmother never sold that necklace, not even when the Great Depression further reduced her financial circumstances. She kept it, and she gave it to her daughter, who gave it to her daughter, who gave it to me. The necklace is always given with a warning: there is something worse than being poor, worse than being scared, worse even than being desperate. Worse than all of these things is separation from God. When I wear this necklace, I think about my grandmother and this man she possibly loved a hundred years ago. I think of the many decisions we make every day — large and small, good and bad — that reverberate down through the generations in ways we cannot, at the time, imagine.

I think of the God who knows every hair on my head.

“And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna.” (Matthew 10:28)

No one's family is perfect; we all have issues that we deal with, some are minor while others are very complicated. Our lives are always changing, and there are times when we don't know how to react because we find ourselves in a place we never imagined. What do we lean on in times of uncertainty? St. Paul reminds us that in the end three things remain: faith, hope, and love.

Faith is the belief in what is not seen—our faith in God to protect us and guide us to a place where we will enjoy his presence and faith in each other that we will do what it takes to keep all healthy and wanted.

Hope is the desire for the best of life—whether for us individually or our families or our community or our world. Our hope can and usually is a driving force in our lives giving us purpose and conviction to continue moving forward as we face difficult times.

Love is the unexplainable bond that unites us for life with a connection that is deeper than life itself. Love is everlasting and the greatest gift that we can give or receive. The love of God our Father has brought us into being and has given us life. His son's love has redeemed us by the ultimate sacrifice, giving his human life so we will be drawn even closer to him through the sharing of a common life and death. The Holy Spirit, the promised advocate who is with us always until the end of time, gives us the love that enables us to love fully and imparts courage, wisdom, piety, and all the gifts we need to be faithful followers of Christ.

Times of uncertainty can become times of confidence through faith, hope, and love in each other and in the belief that God never abandons us.

Baptism Information: Baptisms are celebrated on the second & fourth Sunday of each month. A pre-Baptism program must be attended by the parents. Please call the rectory to register for a program.

Marriage Information: Please call the rectory to make arrangements at least six months (a year is preferred) in advance of the wedding date. It is recommended you do not rent reception facilities until your wedding date is confirmed with the pastor. Your preferred wedding date may be unavailable, and we do not want you to lose your deposit with the reception venue.

Parish Registration: New families are welcome and are asked to register at the rectory. Also, previously registered parishioners are asked to notify us of any address changes.

Emergency Sick or Anointing Calls: Please notify us immediately of any serious illness in your family. If you have a hospitalized loved one who would like a visit, please call the rectory with contact information since the hospitals and hospices no longer notify parishes. Please do not wait until the last minute to have someone anointed. There are always accidents/emergencies, but sometimes there is less panic when the anointing can be done prior to someone passing.

We now have available low-gluten hosts which make it possible for people who have celiac disease or allergies to wheat or gluten to be able to receive communion. If you have celiac disease or an allergy to wheat or gluten, please let us know before Mass so that arrangements can be made for you to be able to receive communion at Mass.
