DEACON PHILIP HEITZ, OFS
Marriage/Baptismal Preparation

Phone #: 630.628.0900 x104

In his rule for monastic living, St. Benedict calls on his brothers to “receive all as Christ.” Hospitality is a hallmark of Benedictine spirituality—and the broader Christian life. We need not be monks or nuns to practice the radical hospitality called for in St. Benedict’s Rule and today’s gospel. Jesus puts himself in the place of guest when he tells his apostles: “Whoever receives you receives me.” He ups the ante even further by adding: “and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me.” What does it look like to receive or welcome another as Christ? How can we answer Jesus’ call to take up our cross and follow him? Discipleship demands a radical embrace of the divine in our daily lives. Maybe that looks like seeking forgiveness from a colleague. Maybe it looks like welcoming the pain the pain of unhoused neighbors into your heart and allowing it to move you to action. Maybe the radical welcome to which Jesus calls us looks as simple as offering a “hi, how are you?” to the person sitting by themselves a few pews over. As we move into a new week, consider how you can take up the Christian call to receive others as if you are receiving Christ’s very self.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The funeral luncheon, the Irish wake, the vigil at an ailing loved one’s bedside: in times of crisis, people gather. In moments of sadness, fear, and confusion, we gravitate toward one another.

For some reason, the feelings are so much more bearable when we are not alone. I’m sure that the disciples and their companions, gathered in the upper room after the Lord’s Ascension, did all of the things we typically do at these functions. I’m sure they hugged and talked and shared food, processing together the remarkable events they had witnessed.

But we don’t hear about any of that. We hear only that they prayed — fervently, and together. Saint John Paul II famously said that “it is Jesus that you seek when you dream of happiness; He is waiting for you when nothing else you find satisfies you.” And I think that, whenever we gather, in good times or in bad, we think we are seeking companionship — but we are actually seeking God. As I think back on the last few crisis-gatherings my family has had, I try to remember when we have stopped everything to pray together. I can think of a few times, but to be honest, they are too few. We are usually occupied with more practical tasks: planning the funeral, talking to the doctor, making the decisions, ordering the food. Just trying to survive through it. But this is the busywork of sorrow, and it is a waste of our time. We would do better to follow the example of the disciples and remember that, in these dire moments, God is waiting for us. “Of you my heart speaks; you my glance seeks.” (Psalm 27) ©LPi

As you may have heard, there are some changes in positions here at St. Philip the Apostle. I have some big shoes to fill with Nancy McKnight retiring and Cathy Jaskey my Administrative Assistant who will be taking over for Barb Nicolai also retiring this year. They have served our parish for many years, so please be patient with Cathy and I as we begin this new journey and opportunity here at the parish. We are excited and look forward to working with the families in Religious Education and Sacramental Preparation for First Eucharist, First Reconciliation and Confirmation. We will make mistakes and be flustered from time to time through this year of transition, but we will all grow together in our faith and relationship with Jesus.

God Bless and enjoy your summer!

One can tell a lot about a family by the way they welcome others into their home. Despite parental efforts to elicit the best behavior from their children, family efforts to entertain guests are sometimes difficult. Practicing a spirit of Christian hospitality within the family can be an occasion to reflect upon the importance of this virtue. A family spirit of hospitality is a sign of faith.

When your family gathers, ask each person to consider the following questions about manners: What does it mean to be a good host? What does it mean to be a good guest? Invite each person to share their thoughts and experiences about being a guest or a host. When they have finished, read aloud today's Gospel, Matthew 10:37-42.

Ask family members to describe what Jesus says about hospitality extended to his disciples. (Those who receive Jesus' disciples also receive Jesus himself; hospitality to Jesus' disciples will be rewarded.) Then encourage family members to talk about what it means to be a good guest or a good host. You might also talk about ways in which your family's hospitality might be improved upon. Conclude in prayer together that your family grows to be one in which Christian hospitality is experienced by all. Pray together with the Lord's Prayer or today's Psalm. Source: Loyola Press

This week we will celebrate Independence Day, in doing so we also celebrate the freedoms we enjoy through the bravery of the founders of our country in the desire to forge our own destiny. Our forefathers envisioned a place where we could live in peace, a place where the dignity of all people is held sacred, that all are created equal and have the right to live as they choose. We are still working on forming a more perfect union, a work that continues to be in progress. The only perfect union that has ever existed is the union of the Trinity. Jesus said that he wished that we could be one as "I am one with the Father as the Father is one with me," then he sent his Spirit to be the Advocate that keeps us united with him until he comes again. This union is accomplished by following the life and actions of our Savior, surrendering our will to God and to give our lives for others in unconditional love. True independence from the forces of this world therefore means dependence on God alone. No one can do anything transformative without a relationship with and the guidance of God. As we pray for our country this weekend, let us pray that our actions and the actions of our leaders are true in our trust and reliance on God who has given us all that we have and to be good stewards of all his creation. In this we will fulfill our destiny as children of our Father.

We WELCOME new members at any time. Please contact Pam Reith at onthegopam@gmail.com for more info! Baptism Information: Baptisms are celebrated on the second & fourth Sunday of each month. A pre-Baptism program must be attended by the parents. Please call the rectory to register for a program.

Marriage Information: Please call the rectory to make arrangements at least six months (a year is preferred) in advance of the wedding date. It is recommended you do not rent reception facilities until your wedding date is confirmed with the pastor. Your preferred wedding date may be unavailable, and we do not want you to lose your deposit with the reception venue.

Parish Registration: New families are welcome and are asked to register at the rectory. Also, previously registered parishioners are asked to notify us of any address changes.

Emergency Sick or Anointing Calls: Please notify us immediately of any serious illness in your family. If you have a hospitalized loved one who would like a visit, please call the rectory with contact information since the hospitals and hospices no longer notify parishes. Please do not wait until the last minute to have someone anointed. There are always accidents/emergencies, but sometimes there is less panic when the anointing can be done prior to someone passing.

We now have available low-gluten hosts which make it possible for people who have celiac disease or allergies to wheat or gluten to be able to receive communion. If you have celiac disease or an allergy to wheat or gluten, please let us know before Mass so that arrangements can be made for you to be able to receive communion at Mass.
