Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Prayer of the Faithful

Jesus promises us today that he is the living bread come down from heaven. Let us pray for all who need to be nourished by that living bread.

For our Church as we continue to be bread for the world, sharing the Gospel of life with all who need to hear the Good News, let us pray to the Lord.

For more civil dialog in our politics and in our lives; for the ability to listen to and converse meaningfully even with those who disagree with us, and for the courage to stand against racism wherever it appears, let us pray to the Lord.

For all who are traveling, for all whose work takes them away from home, for refugees and migrant workers, let us pray to the Lord.

For those in our community who are struggling with hardships and life’s misfortunes, especially during this pandemic, for those who need to find the spiritual food that will sustain them, let us pray to the Lord.

For those who are hungry, especially children, who have little or nothing to eat day after day, let us pray to the Lord.

For all the prayers that we hold in the silence of our hearts; for all our intentions spoken and unspoken, let us pray to the Lord.

O bountiful God, you sustain us by your love and care. Graciously hear these our prayers which we make in the name of Jesus our Lord.

In last week’s gospel, Jesus proclaimed, “I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst.” Today we hear Jesus becoming even more explicit about his meaning when he tells the crowd, “The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world.” Considering how the Gospel of John does not contain an institution narrative for the Last Supper, scripture scholar Raymond Brown has suggested that this line might be the Johannine Eucharistic formulary, similar to “This is my body which will be given for you.” (Luke 22:19) When we Catholics meditate on the bread of life discourse, we are inevitably led to consider the role of the Eucharist in our lives of faith. This line is particular, “The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world,” highlights the paschal nature of the sacrament. Pope Benedict XVI tells us, “Only through the cross and through the transformation that it effects does this flesh become accessible to us, drawing us up into the process of transformation” (Jesus of Nazareth 270).

“Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God.” These words bring us up short! What could we be doing to grieve the Holy Spirit? Alas, the same things that the Ephesians were doing in the time of Paul, that is, fighting, shouting, reviling each other with fury, anger, and malice. Just tune in to talk radio some day or observe some “road rage” on the expressway. If we who are partakers of the Body of Christ can treat one another this way, what does that mean about our belief in Christ’s message of peace and reconciliation? The Eucharist is the sacrament of unity. It is communion with God and with each other. A good first step would be to speak civilly to each other, even in disagreement! Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Elijah is running for his life from King Ahab and Jezebel because he told the truth. He was fed by an angel of the Lord for his forty-day flight. This story is context for the third-Sunday-in-a-row conversation between Jesus and the crowd on bread of life. Perhaps, with a sigh, Jesus says, “Stop murmuring.” Though what I say may be hard to believe, it is true, it is real. I am living bread. Eat me and live for ever.

- What do I believe concerning what looks like bread is more than bread?
- How does eating this living bread affect my life?
- After sharing in Communion, how can I affect the lives of others?
We never know what the future will bring. With all the uncertainty that surrounds us, one thing we can be sure of is the presence of God in our lives. We see this presence in the people around us as we take care of each other. In all the little and grand things, we do for each other. These actions come from love, the love that was modeled by Christ himself. We put our concern for others before ourselves when we share all that we are and become one with all. This is part of the mystery of the Eucharist. When bread is made, it comes from single grains of wheat ground together to form the single substance of flour. When water is added, it transforms into the bread that becomes the bread of life, the Body of Christ when consecrated. Similarly, single grapes are pressed to become the wine that becomes the Blood of Christ. In the same way, our belief in the Real Presence of Christ unites all of us into the mystical body of Christ. When we receive the Word incarnate into our being, we strive to be what we consume. This is shown in our sharing of the meal that will one day lead us to eternal life.

God is a good worker; but loves to be helped.
(Basque proverb)

Baptism Information: Baptisms are celebrated on the second & fourth Sunday of each month. A pre-Baptism program must be attended by the parents. Please call the rectory to register for a program.

Marriage Information: Please call the rectory to make arrangements at least six months (a year is preferred) in advance of the wedding date. It is recommended you do not rent reception facilities until your wedding date is confirmed with the pastor. Your preferred wedding date may be unavailable, and we do not want you to lose your deposit with the reception venue.

Parish Registration: New families are welcome and are asked to register at the rectory. Also, previously registered parishioners are asked to notify us of any address changes.

Emergency Sick or Anointing Calls: Please notify us immediately of any serious illness in your family. If you have a hospitalized loved one who would like a visit, please call the rectory with contact information since the hospitals and hospices no longer notify parishes. Please do not wait until the last minute to have someone anointed. There are always accidents/emergencies, but sometimes there is less panic when the anointing can be done prior to someone passing.

We now have available low-gluten hosts which make it possible for people who have celiac disease or allergies to wheat or gluten to be able to receive communion. If you have celiac disease or an allergy to wheat or gluten, please let us know before Mass so that arrangements can be made for you to be able to receive communion at Mass.
