Jesus Shows Us God.

In his time of trial, Elijah is looking for the LORD to save him. The psalmist pleads for God's salvation. Paul recounts the covenantal bond between God and all the People of God. And Jesus. Jesus feeds those who hunger. Jesus tries (again!) to go off and pray. But he sees his disciples in peril and walks on troubled water to offer courage and safety.

- ◆ How will I keep looking for God in this troubled time?
- ◆ How will I act because God choose me—and us?
- ◆ How will I take courage and not be afraid trusting in Jesus' power to save?

If you haven't already completed your 2020 census, today is the perfect day! Participating in the census is a great way to serve your community. The census funds social programs such as providing food and resources to vulnerable populations. It also funds roads, emergency response, and hospitals which need your support. Your participation ensures our representation. Call 844-330-2020 or go online to 2020census.gov and make your voice be heard.

August 9, 2020 (Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time) Prayer of the Faithful

God is with us even in the storms of our lives.
Let us now lift up our hearts and voices to God in prayer for all our sisters and brothers in need.

For the safety of Christians everywhere, especially in North Korea, Somalia, Yemen, and Afghanistan,
let us pray to the Lord.

For an end to violence among nations, and for a commitment to true peace without prejudice,
let us pray to the Lord.

For all those who are suffering and recovering from storms, earthquakes, and other natural disasters,
let us pray to the Lord.

For those who struggle to discern the movement of God in their lives, that they may find and open door of welcome in our parish community, let us pray to the Lord.

For those whose lives are in turmoil, especially those who have been affected by illness or economic loss due to the pandemic, that they may be able to turn to the Lord,
let us pray to the Lord.

For all those who are sick, for all who suffer from COVID-19, and for all who have died,
let us pray to the Lord.

For all the prayers that we hold in the silence of our hearts; for all our intentions spoken and unspoken,
let us pray to the Lord.

O God of peace, hear these our prayers and grant your peace to our world.
We ask this in the name of Jesus our Lord.

Sunday Readings for August 9, 2020 (Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time)

Reading 1 (1 Kgs 19:9a, 11–13a)

At the mountain of God, Horeb, Elijah came to a cave where he took shelter. Then the LORD said to him, “Go outside and stand on the mountain before the LORD; the Lord will be passing by.” A strong and heavy wind was rending the mountains and crushing rocks before the LORD—but the LORD was not in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake—but the LORD was not in the earthquake. After the earthquake there was fire—but the LORD was not in the fire. After the fire there was a tiny whispering sound. When he heard this, Elijah hid his face in his cloak and went and stood at the entrance of the cave.

Responsorial Psalm (Ps 85:9, 10, 11–12, 13–14)

R. (8) Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

I will hear what God proclaims; the LORD—for he proclaims peace.

Near indeed is his salvation to those who fear him, glory dwelling in our land.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

Kindness and truth shall meet; justice and peace shall kiss.

Truth shall spring out of the earth, and justice shall look down from heaven.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

The LORD himself will give his benefits; our land shall yield its increase.

Justice shall walk before him, and prepare the way of his steps.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

Reading 2 (Rom 9:1–5)

Brothers and sisters: I speak the truth in Christ, I do not lie; my conscience joins with the Holy Spirit in bearing me witness that I have great sorrow and constant anguish in my heart. For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people, my kindred according to the flesh. They are Israelites; theirs the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the worship, and the promises; theirs the patriarchs, and from them, according to the flesh, is the Christ, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.

Gospel (Mt 14:22–33)

After he had fed the people, Jesus made the disciples get into a boat and precede him to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. After doing so, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray. When it was evening he was there alone. Meanwhile the boat, already a few miles offshore, was being tossed about by the waves, for the wind was against it. During the fourth watch of the night, he came toward them walking on the sea. When the disciples saw him walking on the sea they were terrified. “It is a ghost,” they said, and they cried out in fear. At once Jesus spoke to them, “Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid.” Peter said to him in reply, “Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.” He said, “Come.” Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus. But when he saw how strong the wind was he became frightened; and, beginning to sink, he cried out, “Lord, save me!” Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught Peter, and said to him, “O you of little faith, why did you doubt?” After they got into the boat, the wind died down. Those who were in the boat did him homage, saying, “Truly, you are the Son of God.”

How do we encounter God in the midst of the trials and storms of our lives?

Our readings help us reflect upon God’s presence with us in difficult times. We hear of the prophet Elijah, who had just boldly demonstrated God’s power, and is now terrified as he flees for his life, desperately seeking God’s presence. We hear of Peter, after briefly walking on water during the storm, sinking fast as fear overwhelms him. At times our fears, sadness, or fatigue might severely test even our strongest desires to care for others and to serve God. Perhaps these are the moments when, as we encounter our weakness, we may open ourselves more deeply to God’s strength. Often with difficulty, and perhaps over a lifetime, we can learn to depend on God, who always extends a loving hand toward us, especially during the storms of our lives. Copyright © J. S. Registration materials were sent home electronically after Memorial Day to families who were in the Religious Education Program last year. Registration forms are also available on-line at st-phil.org. Families will be able to take advantage of a reduced tuition rate through September 1; after that date, tuition will increase by $50. We are encouraging everyone to register this year via email or through the regular mail and pay by credit/debit card or check. No cash will be accepted at this time. Please pass this registration information on to any family members, friends, or neighbors whose children were not in the program last year. Thank you!

MASS REGISTRATION INFORMATION

When making reservations for the weekend Masses, please call the Parish Office at 630-628-0900 x0 from Monday at 9:00 a.m. through Thursday at 2:30 p.m., or enter your reservation through the link on the St. Philip the Apostle website (st-phil.org), or through the parish Facebook page (<https://www.facebook.com/StPhilipAddisonIL/>). If you don't make a reservation, but plan on attending a weekend Mass, you run the risk that there may not be any seats available. Also, please remember the doors will be locked ten minutes prior to Mass starting. This is to ensure everyone is checked in and seated before Mass begins. Registrations are not needed for the 8:00 a.m. weekday Masses, but all other COVID-19 protocols will be followed including the wearing of masks, social distancing, temperature checks, and well-being questions.

There seems to be some confusion when registering for weekend Masses as to what category should be used. We have re-evaluated the registration process and have decided to have just one category (General Admission) to simplify the process. So, if you are a family, couple, or single person, you will sign up for the General Admission and put how many people are coming under your registration. Thankfully, the numbers are rising for attendance, but that means we need to ensure we are abiding by the diocesan guidelines set by the bishop.

We are in great need of more volunteers to help out with set-up, clean-up, and ushering/greeting at both Masses. Please contact Carol Schubert at cschubert@st-phil.org or call 630-628-0900 x104 if you would like to volunteer.

The St. Philip the Apostle Parish staff is trying to do the best we can to accommodate everyone and appreciate your cooperation during this transitional time. Please communicate the above information to anyone who does not have access to the Internet.

Have you ever wondered why Jesus chose fishermen to be his first disciples? They don't seem to be the obvious choice to help Jesus in his mission of proclaiming the kingdom of God. These men were most likely illiterate and their long days (and sometimes even nights) at sea, as well as the endless work of mending their nets, would have kept them from spending extra time in the synagogue studying the word of God. And yet, there are other things about fishermen that probably made them the ideal first disciples of the Lord. Their lives required hard, physical labor, patience, and trust. As anyone who has spent serious time devoted to fishing knows, there is no guarantee that a day's labors will produce results. Instead, one must be prepared to show up again and again in the hopes of a catch. Fishermen also need a healthy respect for the forces of creation and the humility to know when to turn back and call it a day. We, too, are called to be fishermen—to put our muscle behind building a just and peaceful society, to cast out our nets again and again in hope and most important, to develop the tenacity to keep trying in the face of failure. Just like Peter, we are not alone in our efforts; walking on the stormy waves or sitting in the boat beside us, Jesus, the Lord of life continues to call out, "Take courage...Do not be afraid."

Peter left the boat without regard to his life or to the consequences that might follow his actions. His great faith caused him to do so, but then the world around him told him that walking on water was not something he could actually do.

Sometimes our faith leads us out of the comfort zone we normally live in; this also takes a courage that we may not know that we possess. Then, like Peter, we begin to wonder what we are doing and begin to second guess ourselves and retreat to our former thinking. Our belief is that God can do all things and that he works through us to achieve all things. Can our response and acceptance of doing what God calls us to do be a measure of our individual faith? Even if we try and fail, we have still succeeded in the attempt and then coming to the realization that we need God's help will only strengthen our relationship and faith. This realization will show us that on our own we may partially succeed, but, with reliance on God, we can overcome the obstacles in our lives. Being open to the presence of God in our lives and recognizing him in our surroundings will bring the peace and courage that will allow us to leave our comfort zone to reach out to those we love and to those we do not know.

The 42nd Annual Diocesan Wedding Anniversary Mass will be celebrated on Sunday, August 23 at 2 pm at the Cathedral of St. Raymond in Joliet. Couples celebrating anniversaries of 25 years, 50 years, and more than 50 years, are welcome to attend and will receive an anniversary certificate mailed after the Mass. Bishop Richard E. Pates will celebrate the Mass and will lead all couples in a special renewal of wedding promises. Please register by August 14 by calling the Office of Family Ministry at 815-838-5334 or register online at <https://bit.ly/3fBY3VN>.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

Questions? Call 630-628-0900 x103.

Baptism Information: Baptisms are celebrated on the second & fourth Sunday of each month. A pre-Baptism program must be attended by the parents. Please call the rectory to register for a program.

Marriage Information: Please call the rectory to make arrangements at least six months (a year is preferred) in advance of the wedding date. It is recommended you do not rent reception facilities until your wedding date is confirmed with the pastor. Your preferred wedding date may be unavailable, and we do not want you to lose your deposit with the reception venue.

Parish Registration: New families are welcome and are asked to register at the rectory. Also, previously registered parishioners are asked to notify us of any address changes.

Emergency Sick or Anointing Calls: Please notify us immediately of any serious illness in your family. If you have a hospitalized loved one who would like a visit, please call the rectory with contact information since the hospitals and hospices no longer notify parishes. Please do not wait until the last minute to have someone anointed. There are always accidents/emergencies, but sometimes there is less panic when the anointing can be done prior to someone passing.

We now have available low-gluten hosts which make it possible for people who have celiac disease or allergies to wheat or gluten to be able to receive communion. If you have celiac disease or an allergy to wheat or gluten, please let us know before Mass so that arrangements can be made for you to be able to receive communion at Mass.
