My brothers and sisters in the Diocese of Joliet:

The Diocese of Joliet sends its continued thanks to Bishop Conlon for nine years of service. As many of you know, a Mass of Appreciation has been scheduled to take place at the Cathedral of St. Raymond Nonnatus in Joliet on August 21, 2020, at 7:00 p.m.

Due to local, state and diocesan event restrictions caused by the COVID-19 pandemic, attendance at the Mass will be very limited. The event will be live-streamed from the cathedral through our YouTube channel.

We have created an online guestbook for those wishing to send their private messages of thanks and appreciation to Bishop Conlon for his years of service.

For more information, please visit:

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Richard E. Pates
Apostolic Administrator, Diocese of Joliet

Isaiah reminds us today, in our time of trouble: Observe what is right, do what is just. Even with outsiders. Jesus, today, is in lands foreign to the People of Israel. Although he first ignores her, he helps the foreign woman calling to him in her need. Kyrie, eleison. He hears and acts. The Lord does have mercy. Who are on the outs with me; how can I show them kindness? How will I act in right and just ways this week? Because God constantly shows mercy to me, how will I be merciful?

August 16, 2020
Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Prayer of the Faithful

Having heard today of God's gracious welcome and concern for all people, let us offer these prayers now on their behalf.

For our Church throughout the world as we open wide our doors in welcome to all who sincerely seek God, let us pray to the Lord.

For our nation as we wrestle with the issues surrounding those who cross our borders seeking a better life for themselves and their families, let us pray to the Lord.

For all those who live with depression, anxiety, or any emotional or mental disorder, and for those who care for their needs, let us pray to the Lord.

For those who suffer with or are burdened by the heat in these long summer days, let us pray to the Lord.

For leaders in our town and our state to observe what is right and do what is just in rooting out the causes and effects of racism, let us pray to the Lord.

For all those who are sick, for all who suffer from COVID-19, and for all who have died, let us pray to the Lord.

For all the prayers that we hold in the silence of our hearts; for all our intentions spoken and unspoken, let us pray to the Lord.

O God, you make all people joyful in your house of prayer. Graciously hear and answer these prayers which we make in the name of Jesus, your Son.

Sunday Readings for August 16, 2020 (Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time)

Reading 1 (Is 56:1, 6–7)

Thus says the LORD: Observe what is right, do what is just;
for my salvation is about to come, my justice, about to be revealed.
The foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, ministering to him, loving the name of the LORD, and becoming his servants—
all who keep the sabbath free from profanation and hold to my covenant, them I will bring to my holy mountain and make joyful in my house of prayer;
their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be acceptable on my altar, for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.

Responsorial Psalm (Ps 67:2–3, 5, 6, 8)

R. (4) O God, let all the nations praise you!

May God have pity on us and bless us; may he let his face shine upon us.

So may your way be known upon earth; among all nations, your salvation.

R. O God, let all the nations praise you!

May the nations be glad and exult because you rule the peoples in equity; the nations on the earth you guide.

R. O God, let all the nations praise you!

May the peoples praise you, O God; may all the peoples praise you!

May God bless us, and may all the ends of the earth fear him!

R. O God, let all the nations praise you!

Reading 2 (Rom 11:13–15, 29–32)

Brothers and sisters: I am speaking to you Gentiles. Inasmuch as I am the apostle to the Gentiles, I glory in my ministry in order to make my race jealous and thus save some of them. For if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead? For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable. Just as you once disobeyed God but have now received mercy because of their disobedience, so they have now disobeyed in order that, by virtue of the mercy shown to you, they too may now receive mercy. For God delivered all to disobedience, that he might have mercy upon all.

Gospel (Mt 15:21–28)

At that time, Jesus withdrew to the region of Tyre and Sidon. And behold, a Canaanite woman of that district came and called out, “Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is tormented by a demon.” But Jesus did not say a word in answer to her. Jesus’ disciples came and asked him, “Send her away, for she keeps calling out after us.” He said in reply, “I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” But the woman came and did Jesus homage, saying, “Lord, help me.” He said in reply, “It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs.” She said, “Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters.” Then Jesus said to her in reply, “O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish.” And the woman’s daughter was healed from that hour.

Isaiah articulates the vision that it is God’s deep desire that all human beings will respond to God in prayer and thanksgiving. God will summon everyone to “my holy mountain,” that is, the temple Mount.

The temple was the primary symbol of God’s presence among the people. The Temple was where communal worship and sacrifice took place. Worship served to give thanks for God’s blessings on the people. Sacrifice served to help heal relationships between God and Israel, and within the community, when sin had damaged or broken them. The early church reflected upon this vision and saw Jesus as a new temple. The person of Jesus is to be worshiped as God’s active presence within human life.

Jesus is to be worshiped in prayer and thanksgiving, and Jesus is where relationships are healed and renewed. In Jesus, God invites the whole world into God’s loving care.

Last year's classes ended so abruptly that we were unable to send any registration information home with the children as we normally do, but we have sent it out electronically via School Messenger and also offer the forms on-line at st-phil.org. I have been working on and praying about the upcoming school year and what our religious education program might look like. I was required by the Diocese of Joliet to submit a plan for the fall including: building procedures, cleaning protocol, social distancing, and contact tracing requirements for COVID-19. Parish staff and I have discussed all of the options for in-classroom learning. Taking into account the safety of our religious education students and volunteers, funding limitations, and space restrictions which make it difficult to have classes in the school building, we have reached a consensus and will implement a family-centered, remote-learning religious education program for the 2020/2021 school year. It is my intention and hope that this will be a wonderful and prayerful experience for families. For that reason, we will provide textbooks along with a schedule for learning. I am developing an on-line Gospel Weekly, which will be available through our website, as well as many more digital resources to use as needed and desired. The only grades that will be required to attend virtual class sessions will be Grades 2 and 8 who are preparing for the Sacraments of First Communion and Confirmation. Their classes will be held via Google Meet or a similar platform. Attendance is required for the students to receive their Sacraments. Catechists for the remaining grades will contact the families on a regular basis to check in and stay in touch. Should the State of Illinois return to Phase 1 or 2 and require students to work from home for their public school classes, I do not want families to have the added stress of more screen time with religious education work. Hopefully, the religion education studies will become a time of family prayer and faith discussion, rather than a log-in on the computer. It is our intention and plan to return to in-classroom learning in the fall of 2021. I hope all of our families will stay with us this year so their child(ren) will not miss important preparation for the next grade level. As in the past, tuition for home study is the same as in-classroom study. I will be in contact with our families regarding dates and times for pick-up of materials and, as always, will keep them informed of any changes and on-going updates. Please forward this information to any families who were not in the program last year. Our religious education families—and all of our parishioners—are in my prayers as we move forward in these trying times.

Today's gospel passage can be difficult to reconcile with the Jesus we know from the rest of the Scriptures. In Luke, from the very beginning Jesus is proclaimed as a gift "for all the people." And when he is presented at the temple, the prophet Simeon takes him in his arms, blessing God and saying, "My eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel." It is startling, then, to find Jesus in today's gospel initially refusing the Canaanite woman who begs for her daughter's healing.

Everything changes. The woman is not put off by Jesus' refusal or even by his comparison of her and her people to "dogs." Her persistence leads him to relent, healing her daughter and even exclaiming, "O woman, great is our faith!" For the people of Matthew's community, this gospel passage would be a reminder that in Jesus, God's covenant has been opened to all people of goodwill. Within our own communities is also holds a challenge: how willing are we to welcome the outsider and the foreigner?

What is the basis for authority in society?

Every society relies on a legitimate authority to ensure that it is orderly, cohesive and smooth running and to promote its development. It is in keeping with human nature, as created by God, that men allow themselves to be governed by legitimate authority. [1897-1902, 1918-1919, 1922]

It was almost one year ago that two young ladies came to our parish seeking to be received into a relationship with God. They came to sessions every Sunday to learn about our faith and to draw themselves closer to God within our community. The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) provided this for them. Under normal circumstances this formation process would have reached its peak with them receiving the sacraments of Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation during our celebration of the Easter Vigil. This year has caused many postponements in everyone's lives. Now that we have resumed our in-person worship, these two ladies can finally receive what they have longed for and have desired. On September 11, 2020, at 7:00 p.m. they will become fully initiated in our faith. I ask you to keep them in your prayers for the next month leading up to this wonderful reception of the grace and love of our God.

Daniele Soares requests that you pray for her as she graduates from high school, so that God will guide her in making good choices for her future.

Rachel Arnold requests that you pray for her to get past her sadness and anxieties. Pray that she is able to put her trust and faith in God to help her move forward.

When making reservations for the weekend Masses, please call the Parish Office at 630-628-0900 x0 from Monday at 9:00 a.m. through Thursday at 2:30 p.m., or enter your reservation through the link on the St. Philip the Apostle website (st-phil.org), or through the parish Facebook page (<https://www.facebook.com/StPhilipAddisonIL/>). If you don't make a reservation, but plan on attending a weekend Mass, you run the risk that there may not be any seats available. Also, please remember the doors will be locked ten minutes prior to Mass starting. This is to ensure everyone is checked in and seated before Mass begins. Registrations are not needed for the 8:00 a.m. weekday Masses, but all other COVID-19 protocols will be followed including the wearing of masks, social distancing, temperature checks, and well-being questions. There seems to be some confusion when registering for weekend Masses as to what category should be used. We have re-evaluated the registration process and have decided to have just one category (General Admission) to simplify the process. So, if you are a family, couple, or single person, you will sign up for the General Admission and put how many people are coming under your registration. Thankfully, the numbers are rising for attendance, but that means we need to ensure we are abiding by the diocesan guidelines set by the bishop. We are in great need of more volunteers to help out with set-up, clean-up, and ushering/greeting at both Masses. Please contact Carol Schubert at cschubert@st-phil.org or call 630-628-0900 x104 if you would like to volunteer. Thank you!

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

ABORTION ALTERNATIVES: Waterleaf (630-701-6270) , Post Abortion Healing (877-467-3463), Birthright (800-550-4900, 24 hours)

Baptism Information: Baptisms are celebrated on the second & fourth Sunday of each month. A pre-Baptism program must be attended by the parents. Please call the rectory to register for a program.

Marriage Information: Please call the rectory to make arrangements at least six months (a year is preferred) in advance of the wedding date. It is recommended you do not rent reception facilities until your wedding date is confirmed with the pastor. Your preferred wedding date may be unavailable, and we do not want you to lose your deposit with the reception venue.

Parish Registration: New families are welcome and are asked to register at the rectory. Also, previously registered parishioners are asked to notify us of any address changes.

Emergency Sick or Anointing Calls: Please notify us immediately of any serious illness in your family. If you have a hospitalized loved one who would like a visit, please call the rectory with contact information since the hospitals and hospices no longer notify parishes. Please do not wait until the last minute to have someone anointed. There are always accidents/emergencies, but sometimes there is less panic when the anointing can be done prior to someone passing.

We now have available low-gluten hosts which make it possible for people who have celiac disease or allergies to wheat or gluten to be able to receive communion. If you have celiac disease or an allergy to wheat or gluten, please let us know before Mass so that arrangements can be made for you to be able to receive communion at Mass.
