Great Expectations

Christmas can be disappointing. We remember the Christmases from our childhood, all the joy, the excitement, and the fun we had. When we grow up, we have to shop for gifts, write and mail the cards, put up the decorations, and do all the preparations that seem to stress us out. We may be sad that the day did not meet our expectations. Now that most of that is done, (unless you are reading this on a break from cleaning house before the grandkids arrive) we can reflect on how the first Christmas upset all expectations.

I'm sure Joseph never expected to have a child so soon. Or to have the baby born in a stable miles from their home in Nazareth. The shepherds never expected to be awakened by angels. And those Jews who looked forward to the coming of a Messiah never expected him to come as a baby. Yet God had reasons for coming in this way.

The nativity scene looks so peaceful and beautiful, but the reality was not so romantic. The messiah came not to the sound of war horns, but the cry of a helpless infant. He was born in a stable because no one had room for him. The first to see him were the shepherds, the migrant workers of the time. The political leaders (Herod and friends) wanted to kill him.

Jesus was born in this way to show that he came not for the important and wealthy, but for the poor and outcast. As an adult, he would continue to surprise: he ate with sinners and tax collectors; he challenged the religious leaders of Israel. He was executed as a criminal.

So today he continues to come to us in the homeless, the illegal alien, the sick, those in prison, the unborn infant, that we might find him where we least expect. Can we learn to see him in the unexpected, in our trials and difficulties, our own weaknesses? When we do, we will celebrate what Christmas is truly about.

As part of their preparations for being Confirmed on February 5, 2023, the eighth graders from the school and the Religious Education Program wrote letters to the parishioners explaining why they want to be Confirmed and what they plan to do after Confirmation. The letter below is from Sophia Trujillo, a student in St. Philip the Apostle School. Please keep these young people in your prayers as they continue their preparations toward adulthood in the Church.

Dear St. Philip the Apostle Parish,

Hello, my name is Sophia Trujillo. I want to share my faith story, and I want to be Confirmed in the Catholic Church. My journey with the St. Philip the Apostle family started when I was baptized here. I wasn't baptized as a baby like most kids. I was baptized the same year I started pre-school with Ms. Kondracki. I didn't fully understand at the time what being baptized meant. Later that year, I was diagnosed with aplastic anemia (bone marrow failure). I had to stay in the hospital for a very long time because I had complications from my stem cell transplant. Aplastic anemia is where my body can't make blood cells. For example, when I bump my knee I get a bruise right away because my body can't make platelets. My family, especially my mom Michelle, our friends, and the entire St. Philip the Apostle community prayed for me to get better. They prayed the Rosary together after Mass and with their families at home. They wrote me nice letters to put up in my hospital room. I had almost ten surgeries in a month because they were trying to save my left eye. I knew the only thing that could help me through this was my faith in God. The doctors weren't sure I would live. Everyone in our parish prayed. It was a miracle because not only was my life saved but so was my eyesight. Prayers work, and miracles happen.

I want to be Confirmed because I want to share my faith with others. I am ready to be Confirmed because my faith is strong. Growing up in our parish and school has given me the best foundation to live a life for Christ. Being Catholic is so much more than checking items off a list. Going to Mass doesn't single handedly make you Catholic. Checking off the sacraments doesn't make you more Catholic. Knowing how I can be a follower of Christ that worships God regularly, prays daily, believes and practices what Jesus taught, and serves those in need is why I am ready to be Confirmed. I plan to volunteer by focusing on the Corporal and Spiritual Acts of Mercy. I have committed to volunteering my time for the next four years to an organization called Girls on the Run Northwest Illinois. They "inspire girls of all abilities to recognize their individual strengths while building a sense of connection in a team setting." This is not just a service project I need to check off for Confirmation. This is the start of a lifelong commitment of community involvement. I also have donated to WINGS in Schaumburg. The mission of WINGS is to provide housing, services, education, and advocacy to end domestic violence.

My patron saint for Confirmation is St. Rita of Cascia. She is the patron saint of difficult marriages, impossible causes, infertility, and parenthood. I chose her because I wanted someone who has been through an impossible case like my medical condition. I was inspired by St. Rita's story because she was abused by her husband, forgave him, and never turned away from God. When I read her story I thought about mine. I never turned away from Him and knew that He's been with me through everything, especially when I was in the hospital. I was also inspired by her to always forgive my neighbors even if I've been hurt by them.

I believe a faith family builds a solid foundation for family members to grow and flourish. Faith families give direction and provide an emotional and spiritual connection. Faith families love, honor, and protect one another. I chose my sponsor Mikaela Olvera because she has shown me love, honor, and protection. She is a graduate of St. Philip the Apostle School. When I was in the hospital, she helped coordinate many school projects to show how much this parish cared about me. I have known Mikaela and her family since I was in kindergarten. She is like my sister and I look up to her, and I know I can always depend on her.

St. Philip the Apostle Church is more than just my school. This church is my faith family. I had my stem cell transplant on Ash Wednesday six years ago. This was the start of my rebirth. On Easter Sunday I was moved from ICU to the regular pediatric floor. I don't think this was a coincidence. My faith, along with the prayers from our entire St. Philip the Apostle community, lifted me up when I needed it most. As a Confirmed Catholic, I intend to share my story and lift up our faith community.

The families in the RE Program celebrated the end of their first semester classes with a Family Faith Night & Christmas Pageant on Wednesday, December 14. To see more pictures from this fun and joyous event, please visit the What's New section of st-phil.org. Second semester classes will begin on Wednesday, January 11. Merry Christmas & Happy New Year!

Our yearly giving campaign kicked off on November 29 and will run through December 31. Every year at this time we raise money for a special need around the parish or school. Last year, your generous donations enabled us to refurbish four of the public restrooms in our building. This year, we would like to complete the job and renovate the last two, so we need to raise $20,000 by December 31. Can you help us by donating $50 or more to this worthy cause? Please go to our giving website at tinyurl.com/SPATouchdown. You can also give by texting 855-575-7888 and entering the code 385619 in the message area of your text. We thank you in advance for your generosity!

First graders recently learned about the legend of the poinsettia and why the flower is so popular at Christmastime. This Mexican legend says that when Jesus was born a small child went to visit him but could not afford a gift fit for a king. She picked some weeds from the side of the road. These weeds turned into bright red blooms. Then we created our own poinsettias to celebrate the Christmas season!

It's not too early to buy your tickets for our Gala on February 24. In fact, buying before December 31 can save you some money! Discounted tickets are available at a price of $90 per person or $900 for a table of ten. This year's theme is Havana Night, and the evening's events will include a show by Jack D'Amico and Nick Pontarelli, an opportunity to buy permanent jewelry by Common Bond, hand-rolled cigars by Yadira Soter, as well as raffles and a delicious dinner. This is our biggest fundraiser for our school so please support it as much as you can. Tickets and sponsorships can be purchased at stphil.home.qtego.net.

The shepherds drop everything to go and see the Christ Child—the one whom the Lord revealed. Imagine how different their lives would have been had they stayed in the fields, deciding that they were "too busy" to change course.

Our God is a God of interruptions. God works in unexpected ways and in unexpected times. In the busyness of this Christmas season, let us be open to holy interruptions. Holiness appears in the messy realities of daily life. God's messengers appear to the shepherds in the fields. Mary and Joseph experience the most sacred night of their lives inside a stable meant for barn animals. The gospel writer leaves out the exact details of Mary's delivery, but we can be sure it was messy and painful like every other human birth. Nativity sets and Christmas cards often depict a pristine manger scene—likely a far cry from that night's realities. Holiness is not clean and tidy. Instead, God meets us in the mess.

All our families have Christmas traditions which connect us with our faith and each other. One of our traditions is the gift of an ornament that speaks of the true reason for Christmas, the birth of Christ. A few years ago we found a set of four ornaments beautifully painted with classical nativity scenes. The following verse from the prophet Isaiah was separated between the ornaments:

"For a child is born to us, a son is given to us;
Upon his shoulder dominion rests.
They name him Wonder-Counselor, God-Hero, Father-Forever, Prince of Peace.
His dominion is vast and forever peaceful"

Each of our three children were given an ornament, and Ann and I kept the fourth. Our prayer in giving this gift was that, even as our children established new traditions with their children, we could be united with the traditions we shared as they grew up. When they would put this ornament on their trees, they will be mindful of our faith in the coming of Christ and that we all share in the promise that His birth gives. I hope you enjoy your own family traditions this Christmas, and may the birth of our Savior bring unity and peace to all of you.

Merry Christmas, Deacon Sean

Marriage Information: Please call the rectory to make arrangements at least six months (a year is preferred) in advance of the wedding date. It is recommended you do not rent reception facilities until your wedding date is confirmed with the pastor. Your preferred wedding date may be unavailable, and we do not want you to lose your deposit with the reception venue.

Parish Registration: New families are welcome and are asked to register at the rectory. Also, previously registered parishioners are asked to notify us of any address changes.

If you have a hospitalized loved one who would like a visit, please call the rectory with contact information since the hospitals and hospices no longer notify parishes. Please do not wait until the last minute to have someone anointed. There are always accidents/emergencies, but sometimes there is less panic when the anointing can be done prior to someone passing.
