PRAYER OF THE WEEK
Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Grant, we pray, almighty God, that, always pondering spiritual things, we may carry out in both word and deed that which is pleasing to you.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:
What can I do this week that is pleasing to God?

Kindness: the antidote to a cold heart

February can be one of the coldest months of the year. While we may differ on our preference between cold or hot weather, I think we can all agree no one wants a cold heart. St. Catherine of Siena reminds us that, "The human heart is always drawn by love." However, without attending to our relationship to Jesus, it is all too easy for our hearts to turn cold or even lukewarm. In a homily by Pope Francis given in 2016, the Holy Father exhorted, "A lukewarm heart becomes self-absorbed in lazy living and it stifles the fire of love."

So, how do we keep our hearts from turning cold or lukewarm until the spring comes? In other words, how do we keep our hearts on fire with our love for God and neighbor? While there are many possible ways to accomplish that, let me suggest one yet profound way: namely, the practice of kindness.

Recently in our Blanchette Catholic Center, one of our employees was asked what she wanted for her birthday. She replied with one word, "Kindness." Why did she ask for the gift of kindness? I think it is because she has been inundated with what so many of us have been experiencing, specifically a growing amount of rudeness, anger and unforgiving spirit in an increasingly polarized world. Anyone who works specifically in customer service, or just with "people" in general, reports a rise in angry outbursts, both verbally and physically.

While we all want others to be more kind to us, we all also need to work on how to be more kind to others. To do this, a few years ago, someone introduced me to the "FIVE" rule. If you are ever provoked to respond to someone in an unkind way, ask yourself, "Before any nasty words leave my mouth, how will I feel about what I am about to say in the next five seconds? In five minutes? In five hours? In five days? And in five years? It is possible that we might feel better in the next five seconds, five minutes or even five hours. However, it is always good to take a wider perspective and ask, "Is what I am about to say something I will be proud of or regret in the next five days or five years?"

In the Gospels, Jesus gives us an example of what it looks like to be grounded in kindness. In the times that he is dismissed, criticized, opposed, jeered, mocked, and even tortured physically, he responds with a cumulative and resounding, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they do." As we lean into Jesus, our daily prayer lives help to connect to the Sacred Heart of Jesus as we appeal to his love and mercy.

We may be tempted to reject this movement toward kindness because it may be interpreted as a sign of weakness. We might think, "Fine. I am willing to be kinder to others. But that will not help change the rude and angry behaviors of so many other people out there!" However, never forget that kindness is wonderfully infectious. As St. Augustine wrote, "One loving heart sets another on fire." In other words, when we speak and act with kindness, it can spread and multiply in others.

At the Diocese of Joliet, we model and multiply the kindness that Jesus displayed in his life and his works in our ministries. Our Catholic schools teach kindness when students are instructed in Catholic social teaching as part of the regular curriculum. Our Catholic Charities teaches kindness when providing a room for the homeless at Daybreak Shelter or delivering food to the needy through its mobile food pantry. Our adult formation program teaches kindness when accompanying individuals through a study of the Gospels. And our vocations program teaches kindness when helping young men and women discover the fullness of a life devoted to the Lord.

The need for kindness is why the theme for our 2022 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA) is "Devoted to the Works of the Lord." It is through the kindness found woven throughout our works dedicated to God that we find peace and salvation. I encourage you to learn more about our ministries and how you can multiply the kindness of our works through the CMAA by going to the following website: www.jolietdioceseappeal.org

I hope you agree that none of us wants to have cold or lukewarm hearts. We long for hearts on fire with love of God and neighbor. As we wait for the spring, might we consider to be the change we want to see in the world by practicing kindness frequently. As St. Teresa of Kolkata said, "Let no one ever come to you without leaving better and happier. Be the living expression of God's kindness: kindness in your face, kindness in your eyes, kindness in your smile." ♩

Religious education families should mark their calendars for the following events:

- Because of COVID and no in-person classes in 2020/2021, the sixth graders were not able to enjoy their traditional parent/child retreat last year so this year the retreats will include both seventh graders (last year’s sixth graders) and this year’s sixth graders. The Grade 6 & 7 Father/Son Retreat will be held on Wednesday, February 23, at 6:30 p.m. with Bill Johnson as the presenter.

- Second graders and their parents will also participate in a First Eucharist Retreat from 9:00 a.m. to noon on Saturday, March 5, in the parish gym. It’s an opportunity for the family to bond over activities that are designed to help the children prepare for the sacredness of this most special sacrament.

- Elementary Living Stations of the Cross will take place on Saturday, March 12, at 9:45 a.m. in the church. Junior high students will participate in their Living Stations of the Cross at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, March 16.

- The RE Program will be gathering donations for the needy in the area for the St. Joseph Lenten Project during the month of March. Items needed are paper towels, toilet paper, napkins, dish soap, laundry detergent, hand soap, shampoo/conditioner, combs, razors, toothbrushes, toothpaste, feminine products, diapers, lotion, etc. Donations may be dropped off in the RE Office. Thank you for your generosity! The donated items will be blessed at the St. Joseph Prayer Service on Saturday, March 16, at 9:15 a.m. in the church.

Your gift to the CMAA makes a difference

The opening report for the 2022 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA) in today’s bulletin illustrates how, when we pledge our support to the CMAA, we are devoted to the works of the Lord. Through the CMAA, we serve so many in our diocese, including our most vulnerable brothers and sisters. Every parish, including ours, benefits from the ministries funded through the CMAA, like vocations, Catholic education and faith formation. Our parish’s goal for the 2022 CMAA is $62,500 with 70% of the amount we raise over this goal returned to us for our needs. Please prayerfully reflect on your gift to this year’s CMAA and make a commitment next week during our CMAA Commitment/InPew Weekend.

Thank you for considering the most generous pledge possible to this year’s annual appeal.
Most people don’t like being told what to do, especially when that means being told not to do a certain something. Fortunately for us, the Christian way of life is not about what we cannot do, as Jesus makes abundantly clear in today’s reading. Jesus does not say, “Don’t take revenge on those who hurt you,” but instead says, “Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you.” Jesus does not say, “Do not hold back in what you give.” Rather, Jesus says, “Give to everyone who asks of you, and from the one who takes what is yours do not demand it back.” Moral theologians speak of two types of happiness: morality of happiness and morality of obligation. As Christians, we act because we find true happiness in living as God calls us to live. We find joy in following Jesus’ command to love our enemies and do good to those who hate us because we know that is how we grow in relationship with God and others. The Christian life is not about following a strict set of rules because we have to. The Christian life is about making choices because they bring us joy and ultimate fulfillment.

It’s likely that some friends or followers of Jesus told him, from time to time, to “get real” when his teachings seemed too hard or impractical. John’s Gospel, near the end of the Bread of Life discourse, reports that some disciples out and out turned away because it was too hard to continue following Jesus. When Jesus said to love our enemies, pray for those who hurt us, or do good for those who hate us, the response, “get real,” wouldn’t be surprising. And yet, the very life and witness of Jesus is filled with his prophetic examples of doing just that; of refusing to return harm for harm. The lives of the saints are likewise filled with such examples, especially those saints who were laborers in the field for justice and peace. Is this command of Jesus difficult? Yes. Is it impossible? No.

Today’s Readings: 1 Sm 26:2, 7-9, 12-13, 22-23; Ps 103:1-2, 3-4, 8, 10, 12-13; 1 Cor 15:45-49; Lk 6:27-38

Do you hear God calling you to ministry in the church? We need men, women and children to become Lectors, Communion Ministers, Ushers, Altar Servers, and volunteers to help sanitize the church after the 5:00 p.m. Mass and the 10:00 a.m. Mass on the weekends. Please call Carol Schubert at 630-628-0900 x104 if you want to answer the call...
Relationships are all around us; some are close, some are distant—not just in terms of miles, but in how open we are to the people in our lives. Today’s gospel and the first reading speak of what relationship is—the ability to accept others for who they are, to recognize the gifts they possess, and being truthful with one another. Honesty is an important component of a relationship, knowing where the other stands and making our opinion known as well leads to friendship and understanding. Make your “yes” mean “yes” and your “no” mean “no.” When we qualify our responses to questions, we are putting conditions on our answers that could lead to the other person not fully trusting or at least not fully understanding where we stand on a given issue. Acceptance of one another for who they are at a given time in their lives and learning the meaning of their part in ours leads to loving unconditionally as God loves us. When we open our hearts to others, we open our hearts to the presence of God’s love, and we find peace. Judgment belongs to God alone, for only he can truly read our hearts and know our intent and our ability to love as he has loved us.

Believing and Doing Five Things. Jesus, today, continues his preaching from last week. He tells us five things we must do as his followers. Love even those who do not love us. Be merciful as God is merciful. Stop judging other’s actions and motives. Forgive in order to be forgiven. Give, give, give. What a list! It makes for a busy week for each of us. And that is the pattern for every week that follows. How can my prayer and action be: “Lord, bless those I love and even those I do not love.” How will I be merciful? What gifts will I give? Whom must I forgive?

If you have celiac disease or an allergy to wheat or gluten, please let us know before Mass so that arrangements can be made for you to be able to receive communion at Mass.
