While we all hope to remain healthy in our later years, the reality is that most of us will need long-term care at some point in our lives.

In this seminar, we will discuss some of the challenges that you may face and the solutions that you and your family should consider. We'll go through what long-term care is and how the Knights of Columbus can help you prepare.

Grant us, Lord our God,
that we may honor you with all our mind,
and love everyone in truth of heart.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,

As part of their preparation for Confirmation, the eighth grade students in the RE Program and St. Philip the Apostle School write letters to the parish to explain why they want to be Confirmed. Below is the letter from religious education student Thomas Kroplewski.

My name is Thomas Kroplewski, though I mostly go by Tom or Tommy. I was born and raised in Addison, and I have attended St. Philip Religious Education since kindergarten. I have a younger sister Alexa, and we were both baptized here. My mom and aunts also attended St. Philip Religious Education, and St. Philip is where they received First Communion and Confirmation. My parents Michael and Rita were married here.

My Confirmation name is Anthony. I chose St. Anthony of Padua because we frequently pray for him to help us find lost things at home. I learned that he was also a very gifted speaker and courageously spread God's word in a simple way that was accessible to all to understand. I would also like to be able to share God's word with others.

My sponsor is my aunt, Jessica Ritter, one of my mom's younger sisters. She is my godmother, and we have a very close relationship. When I am feeling stubborn, she can get me to listen to her and think about what she has to say. She also gives me great advice and helps me feel more confident.

I am looking forward to my Confirmation and receiving the Holy Spirit. Having received this holy sacrament, I will become an "adult" member of the church. Through the Holy Spirit's guidance, I hope to grow stronger in my faith and in my service to God and others.

I plan to live my life more fully as a Catholic after Confirmation by showing my faith and living as a good Christian and Catholic. I plan to attend Mass every weekend and pray daily. I also plan to raise my family in the Catholic faith when I am older. I would also like to serve my parish and others with volunteer work, similar to what we are doing and recording for Confirmation like Sleep Out Saturday for Bridge Communities, and packing meals at Feed My Starving Children, as well as parish activities and fundraisers. I will always trust the Holy Spirit to guide me.

In brotherhood, Thomas Kroplewski

Please remember in your prayers the following parish young people who will be celebrating their Confirmation on Saturday, February 5, at 11:00 a.m. with Bishop Hicks as their celebrant.

God delights us with surprises. In today's gospel, after Jesus speaks in the synagogue, all were amazed and asked, "Isn't this the son of Joseph?" It was difficult for those gathered to see Jesus as anything beyond what they already knew about him and his family. They became even more enraged when Jesus proclaimed that prophets are not accepted in their native place. Filled with fury, outrage, and at least some bewilderment, the crowd attempted to kill Jesus because he did not meet their expectations. They did not allow God to surprise them. Do we allow ourselves to be surprised by God? Undaunted by the crowds, however, Jesus does not shirk from his message. Rather, he remains confident and committed to his words and does not fight back when the people rebuke him and try to throw him over a cliff. This is similar to the Christian message proclaimed by Paul in the letter to the Corinthians. Paul writes, "At present we see indistinctly, as in a mirror, but then face to face. At present, I know partially; then I shall know fully, as I am fully known." As humans we do not know everything. When the kingdom of God is fulfilled, however, we will know and see as God does.

Believing God Who Protects.
Proclaiming God's Word can be costly.
For the grueling work of prophet Jeremiah,
God declares he will not be alone. In proclaiming Good News in his home town, Jesus is faced with reproach and the threat of being thrown over the cliff. Proclaiming Good News is the task of each of us because of Baptism into Christ. So, how do we do it?
As faithful, hopeful, loving Christians.

- What words of faith will I share with others this week?
- What is part of the great hope I have in believing in Christ?
- Because God keeps me safe in a protecting embrace, how can I love?
- Whom will I love – even those who are not "one of us"?

Today's readings show us what it is like to be a prophet. As Jeremiah recounts his call, God warns him that he will need strength and perseverance to withstand the hostility he will face from "Judah's kings and princes" and "its priests and people" (Jeremiah 1:18b). God also assures him that they "will not prevail over you, for I am with you" (1:19). The psalm reflects both of these struggles as well as deliverance from them ("salvation"). This is exactly what Jesus experiences in today's Gospel. After he claims that his own mission is the same as what Isaiah proclaimed, at first the people marvel at his "gracious words" (Luke 4:22). Soon, however, they become suspicious, skeptical, and hostile, even threatening to kill him. But just as God promised to deliver Jeremiah, so Jesus "passed through the midst of them and went away" (4:30).

People come into our lives and each one brings with them unique gifts that can make a difference to those around them. Every one of them share themselves as best they can and enrich our lives. We grow to know and love them, wishing they would always be with us. But then comes the time for them to move on with their lives and to share what they have with a new group of people. This weekend we say goodbye to Fr. Steve after five and a half years of leading our parish. As I look back on these years, I am thankful to Fr. Steve for all he has done for our community. I think one of the most unique gifts that Fr. Steve brought us was the Healing Masses; these Masses gave us a glimpse of the compassion and the power of the Holy Spirit. Fr. Steve will be missed for many other things; as he begins his new assignment may God continue to bless him and give him the grace to continue sharing all that he has with his new parishioners.

Baptism Information: Baptisms are celebrated on the second & fourth Sunday of each month. A pre-Baptism program must be attended by the parents. Please call the rectory to register for a program.

Marriage Information: Please call the rectory to make arrangements at least six months (a year is preferred) in advance of the wedding date. It is recommended you do not rent reception facilities until your wedding date is confirmed with the pastor. Parish Registration: New families are welcome and are asked to register at the rectory. Also, previously registered parishioners are asked to notify us of any address changes.

Emergency Sick or Anointing Calls: Please notify us immediately of any serious illness in your family. If you have a hospitalized loved one who would like a visit, please call the rectory with contact information since the hospitals and hospices no longer notify parishes. Please do not wait until the last minute to have someone anointed. There are always accidents/emergencies, but sometimes there is less panic when the anointing can be done prior to someone passing.

If you have celiac disease or an allergy to wheat or gluten, please let us know before Mass so that arrangements can be made for you to be able to receive communion at Mass.
