Jesus told the pairs of disciples, "Whatever place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave there and shake the dust off your feet in testimony against them." Jesus is preparing the disciples for the experience he had in his home town. This is how you behave when you are not accepted. He didn't tell them to curse them or threaten them, just simply shake off the dust and move on. Rejection is a hard thing for any of us, and Jesus is teaching us how to handle it, as if to say "Pick your battles." This is a good reminder to us all in a time and culture when the climate is so politically charged. Know when it is best to shake the dust and walk away from social media, from an angry word, or from something that won't turn out well. Respond and stay true to your calling.

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Prayer of the Faithful

Baptized and called by God, let us pray for all who are in need.

For all the missionaries of the church as they go out into the world two by two: may they bring the Good News to eager listeners, and may they be safe from those who would harm them, let us pray to the Lord.

For leaders of nations to listen to the prophets who call them to justice, fairness, and integrity, let us pray to the Lord.

For those who suffer in the summer's heat, for those who endure storms, wildfires, and floods, and for all who respond to their needs with generous hearts,
let us pray to the Lord.

For our community of faith as we, like the Twelve, take up the call to bring the presence of God to those whom we meet, let us pray to the Lord.

For all those who are called by God to pursue the priesthood and religious life, and for their supportive families and communities, let us pray to the Lord.

For all those who are sick, for all who suffer from COVID-19, and for all who have died, let us pray to the Lord.

For all the prayers that we hold in the silence of our hearts; for all our intentions spoken and unspoken,
let us pray to the Lord.

Loving God, you destined us for adoption through Jesus Christ, so that we might be forgiven and redeemed.

Graciously hear these our prayers for the world that you love, and grant them through Christ our Lord.

Registration is beginning for the 2021/2022 religious education classes! After a year of virtual classes at home, we are pleased to have our children return to their classrooms on Wednesday evenings (Grades 6-8) and Saturday mornings (Grades K-5) in the fall. Please visit our parish website st-phil.org for more information about the coming year, how to register, and to download the forms.

We will have volunteer opportunities available in the fall. The current need is for classroom aides on Saturday morning and Wednesday evening at each grade level. There will also be openings for catechists in Grades 1, 3, 5, and 8. You do not need a teaching certificate--just a sincere desire to share your faith with our young people. Each volunteer is required to complete Protecting God's Children along with State of Illinois Mandated Reporter training. We have a wonderful staff of volunteers at St. Philip who will welcome you and mentor you during the year. Please prayerfully consider sharing your faith and your time with the children. It is quite rewarding!

Here's a simple test to find out whether your mission on earth is finished: If you're alive, it isn't. (Anonymous)

In today's gospel, Jesus' instructions for the twelve as he sends them out on mission seem particularly challenging. They are sent into unknown territory, and the only accompaniment for their journey will be a walking stick and a fellow apostle. Equipped with the barest of essentials (namely the clothes on their backs), the apostles are nevertheless successful in preaching repentance, driving out demons, and healing the sick. While few of us are likely called to the same asceticism the disciples display on their first mission, today's gospel does lift up for us an important practice:

discerning what is most essential. Oftentimes as Christians, we might feel like we need to do or acquire numerous things before we are prepared to preach the good news, such as gaining a degree in theology, a ministry certificate, or a better understanding of the Bible. All of these are good, but often they also give us an easy excuse for why we are not yet sharing the good news with others. For the disciples, the only necessities for carrying out their mission were their relationship with Jesus, the commissioner, and also the assistance and fellowship of the other disciple.

 you*

Thank you to all volunteers!

On behalf of the parish staff and St. Philip the Apostle Parish, I personally would like to extend my gratitude to all of the people who so joyfully stepped in during the past year during the COVID pandemic to make our parish a safe place to worship. Though our worship was different, we were still able to come together as a faith family to celebrate our God. Volunteers took on many different roles during each Mass, funeral, or wedding: Greeters, Set-Up, Sanitizers, Ushers, Lectors, and Extraordinary Ministers of Communion. There were volunteers who washed the linens for Mass, cleaned the church, and decorated for the different liturgical seasons. Jesus always talks about being selfless in our giving as well as joyful. The volunteers at St. Philip the Apostle Church are definitely living out Jesus' call of "love thy neighbor" as they give of themselves. Schubie

Blessings and Glory

The second reading from Ephesians is rather long and with only six sentences, it is not easy to follow. If you take it apart, you see that Paul is very encouraging. He is giving a description of the many blessings God has given us.

He says that we are chosen by God and destined for spiritual blessings: First is Redemption, meaning that Christ saved us from punishment for our sins by forgiving them instead. Second is the plan of God for saving everyone, by making Christ ruler of the universe. We have to accept these gifts by letting go of the temptations around us and holding on to the love we have received from God. The things of the world, possessions, wealth, or power that pretend to make us happy are replaced with love of God; we then share that love with others, so that they know God loves them, too. As our experience of God's love grows, we begin to understand the mystery of how God lives in all people. Another blessing Paul notes is adoption by God to a new relationship as brothers and sisters of Christ; holiness is now for all believers, not just priests or religious.

Paul also reminds us that we are chosen and destined to help God bring his plan, his Kingdom, to completion. When we teach children how to love and share, when we are honest with customers or suppliers, when we are not ashamed to show our faith in Jesus, when we are respectful of the poor, elderly, or disabled, we are slowly building the Kingdom of God, or as Paul says, "to bring all things together in heaven and on earth under Christ" (Eph 1:10).

Paul mentions three times in this reading about "the praise of God's glory." (Eph 1:14) When we are able to help or forgive, or just be a good example to others, we want them to know that God is in all the good we do. Instead of taking credit for the results, we give God the glory. No, you don't have to take off your glasses and put on a red cape before helping others. Just mention that God does the real work, we just try not to get in his way.

If we haven't learned anything else over this past year, we have learned there are many things in life we can't control. We can only deal with them as best we can. When we let go of trying to control and put our trust and faith God, stress melts away, and our days become more manageable. The more we know of God the easier it is to trust in him. For most of us, this knowledge has been part of our lives for as long as we can remember—but there may be someone you know who can also benefit from this relationship with our creator, redeemer, and sanctifier. Many seek answers to life's meaning from others or the Internet, but the true answers lie in God himself. How can you help them find those answers?

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

Our parish offers a Rite of Christian Initiation Program that allows people to inquire about the Catholic faith or learn more about the faith with the possibility of joining the parish community at Easter time. The program will begin on September 19, 2021, and will culminate during Holy Week. Our weekly sessions last about an hour and take place on Sunday mornings following the 10:00 a.m. Mass. Interest in this program carries no obligation to join the Catholic faith. We seek only to offer others the opportunity to have questions answered, knowledge increased, or needs met. This program is also designed to complete the initiation of baptized Catholics who have never received Communion or been Confirmed in the faith. Please feel free to share this invitation with others you think would like to begin or renew their relationship with God and receive more information about the program from me.

Let us remember in prayer our deceased relatives, friends, and parishioners, especially:

Our sympathy to his friends and family.

Please mark your calendars for the following special events in our parish this summer:

- ◆ Remembrance Mass (indoor) on July 18 at 8:00 a.m. to remember friends and loved ones we have lost during the past year. Please bring the completed red hearts you were given earlier for display in the church for several weeks.
- ◆ Welcome back the school and religious education families and other special parish groups during the outdoor 10:00 a.m. Mass on August 15. Please bring chairs and blankets for your comfort and food/beverages for a picnic on the lawn.

Baptism Information: Baptisms are celebrated on the second & fourth Sunday of each month. A pre-Baptism program must be attended by the parents. Please call the rectory to register for a program.

Marriage Information: Please call the rectory to make arrangements at least six months (a year is preferred) in advance of the wedding date. It is recommended you do not rent reception facilities until your wedding date is confirmed with the pastor. Your preferred wedding date may be unavailable, and we do not want you to lose your deposit with the reception venue.

Parish Registration: New families are welcome and are asked to register at the rectory. Also, previously registered parishioners are asked to notify us of any address changes.

Emergency Sick or Anointing Calls: Please notify us immediately of any serious illness in your family. If you have a hospitalized loved one who would like a visit, please call the rectory with contact information since the hospitals and hospices no longer notify parishes. Please do not wait until the last minute to have someone anointed. There are always accidents/emergencies, but sometimes there is less panic when the anointing can be done prior to someone passing.

We now have available low-gluten hosts which make it possible for people who have celiac disease or allergies to wheat or gluten to be able to receive communion. If you have celiac disease or an allergy to wheat or gluten, please let us know before Mass so that arrangements can be made for you to be able to receive communion at Mass.
