PRAYER OF THE WEEK

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

O God, protector of those who hope in you, without whom nothing has firm foundation, nothing is holy, bestow in abundance your mercy upon us and grant that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may use the good things that pass in such a way as to hold fast even now to those that ever endure.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:

In what ways can I use the good things of this world without clinging to them?

19th Annotation

The Spiritual Exercises in Daily Life

starting October 5, 2022 at 7:00 p.m.

The Spiritual Exercises are a compilation of meditations, prayers, and contemplative practices developed by St. Ignatius Loyola to help people deepen their relationships with God. For centuries Exercises were most commonly given as a “long retreat” of about 30 days in solitude and silence. In recent years, there has been a renewed emphasis on Spiritual Exercises as a program for laypeople. The most common way of going through Exercises today is a “retreat in daily life,” also known as the 19th Annotation. An eight-month program of prayer practices, weekly group process, and monthly meetings with a spiritual director. Through this experience, participants come to a greater awareness of God’s presence in their lives.

Facilitated by Lori Bertucci-Thibeau.

It’s time to register your children for fall religious education classes! Registration forms are available in the literature rack in the church narthex and on the parish website st-phil.org. We are excited to announce a change of day and time for Grades K-5 for the 2022/2023 school year! Classes will meet on Wednesday afternoon from 4:15 to 5:45 p.m. We hope this change will encourage better attendance and enable more families to return to the Religious Education Program. Please note that Grades 6-8 will have a slight time change; classes will remain on Wednesday evening but will run from 6:45 to 8:15 p.m. If you have been thinking about volunteering in the RE Program and would like to help beginning in the fall, please prayerfully consider the following opportunities: catechist in Grades 3 or 5, classroom aide in Grade 5, office aide from 6:45 to 8:15 p.m., and front door hospitality person from 4:15 to 5:45 p.m. All volunteers are required to complete the Protecting God’s Children training and State Mandated Reporter training. Both are free of charge.

Thank you for pledging a gift to the CMAA! It is important these pledges be paid, so our parish will reach our goal. Once we have reached our goal in paid pledges, 70% of the amount over goal will be returned to our parish for our needs.

Below is our progress:

PARISH GOAL: $62,500
AMOUNT PLEDGED: $58,103
AMOUNT PAID: $51,634
REMAINING BALANCE: $6,469

St. Philip the Apostle School offers $1,500 off tuition to families who transfer their child into Grades 1 to 7 from any local private*, public, charter, or home school for the 2022-23 school year. With this two-year grant, families will receive $1,000 per student in year one and $500 in year two, which will be credited to offset tuition.

St. Philip the Apostle School provides a Catholic education by integrating faith and values throughout all subjects. With smaller class sizes and resources such as a social worker, resource teacher, and classroom aides in the lower grades, St. Philip provides an excellent academic program in a safe and nurturing environment. It is the mission of our school to provide students with not only an academically excellent Catholic education but also to model a culture of service to others in the community so that students grow to be compassionate and caring citizens of their world.

The 2022-23 school year starts on August 22. Please contact us at 630-543-4130 or email jnoonan@st-phil.org for more information or to arrange a school tour.

*Students transferring from another Catholic school within the Dioceses of Joliet, Peoria, Rockford, Springfield, and the Archdiocese of Chicago are not eligible.

SCRIP gift cards are available to order throughout the year. Visit shop.shopwithscrip.com to see brands/denominations. Contact Lizzy Roberson at 224-287-5278 or email lizzywroberson@gmail.com for more information. All proceeds are earmarked for the school. Thank you for your support in keeping the St. Philip the Apostle School tuition low.
In today's gospel the disciples ask Jesus to teach them how to pray. This is an interesting request, as the disciples have been following Jesus for some time now. They have surely seen Christ pray before. If we look throughout the gospels, we see accounts of Jesus praying in any number of circumstances or situations. Jesus prays prayers of blessing and benediction. Jesus prays prayers of gratitude and thanksgiving. Jesus prays communally and privately. With this, the Lord's Prayer is situated within a much larger context of Jesus teaching his followers to pray in the everyday events of their lives. The Lord's Prayer is a prayer par excellence in the sense that it not only affirms our ultimate dependence on God but also insists that we as the people of God must be invested in our prayer. Jesus says, “Forgive us our sins for we ourselves forgive everyone in debt to us” and continues with the story of the friend who asks for bread. Pope Francis attested, “You pray for the hungry. Then you feed them. That's how prayer works.” Prayer is a way of living in relationship with God and others. We must also remember that the answers to prayer do not always look like what we might expect. May we be open to all possibilities of God's answered prayer.

Jesus talks about praying for whatever we need with faith and confidence, but he ends by asking, "How much more will the Father...give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?" (Luke 1:13). Is he saying there are limits to what we can ask for? "Be careful what you ask for," the saying warns. Just because we want something doesn't mean it will be good for us. Remember the Indiana Jones movies? The artifact that the bad guys were seeking usually turned out to be lethal.

But if we have enough faith to pray for something, we probably would not pray for anything evil. So what is Jesus really saying? He is giving us two lessons about prayer. First, he assures us that God does hear our prayers and answers them. Many people take "ask and you shall receive" so literally that they expect God to do their bidding no matter what they want. Prayers, however, are not a magical ritual that somehow forces God to do their bidding no matter what they want. Prayers, however, are not a magical ritual that somehow forces God to do their will. God is free to do what is best for us, free to answer some prayers with a no when what we seek is against God's will. So maybe our first prayer should be to ask God to show us what we really need. That leads us to the second lesson: prayer changes us, not God. If we truly pray as Jesus prayed, we would ask for what we need, adding, "Not as I will, but as you will" (Matthew 26:39). If we pray humbly and are open to what God wills for us, we will begin to see that what we really need most is actually God. It's not easy to change our minds about what we want or need. To change our desires from selfish to holy takes a lot of power, the power of the Holy Spirit. Jesus was raised from the dead by that power and we will be, too (Romans 8:11). Mary conceived by the power of the Spirit (Matthew 1:18). The bread and wine of the Eucharist become the Body and Blood of Christ by the Spirit's power. So when Jesus promises that the Father will give the Spirit to us for the asking, the Spirit is both the source of and the answer to our prayers. Let us ask the Spirit to empower us to desire and pray for what we really need.

Do you hear God calling you to ministry in the church? We need men, women and children to become Lectors, Communion Ministers, Ushers, and Altar Servers. Please call Carol Schubert at 630-628-0900 x104 if you want to answer the call...
“Go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” Jesus spoke these words to his disciples as he sent them out on a mission. Today he speaks these words to us. In essence, we are to share our faith with those around us. Whenever we hear that Jesus is speaking or teaching his disciples in scripture, he is also speaking to each of us. In our observance of the faith, we too are his disciples today and his message of 2,000 years ago is still pertinent in our world. The original twelve apostles are not in the world—but we are, and we have taken their place. In our actions, words, and in response to Jesus’ command, we are called to continue the same mission of bringing others to the realization of the presence of God in their lives and to those who have strayed from the faith for whatever reason. Unfortunately, some people are disappointed in their lives and believe that God has disappointed them as well. However, God’s way is not our way; sometimes people need a little help in seeing God. This is where our participation comes in. If we know someone who appears lost, we can and should be a guide to bring them into God’s light. It takes courage to be that guide, and we don’t always feel confident that we can fill the role. But, if you share with others that God is in your life, then you can be a beacon for them. Courage comes from speaking our truth of God’s presence, and our words may just be all someone needs to start a relationship with our Lord.

Let us remember in prayer our deceased relatives, friends, and parishioners, especially:

Jakob Bachmeier

Our sympathy to his friends and family.

Abraham is persistent in his pleading with the Lord. And the Lord listens and relents. A disciple asks Jesus, after seeing him pray, how to pray. Jesus gives a form that we use at every Mass and that we hand on to the elect each Lent. He then goes on about persistence in our praying.

- How does my prayer plead for the Kingdom of God to come?
- How does my prayer ask for what I need to do God’s mercy work?
- How does my prayer seek and offer forgiveness?
Baptism Information: Baptisms are celebrated on the second & fourth Sunday of each month. A pre-Baptism program must be attended by the parents. Please call the rectory to register for a program.

Marriage Information: Please call the rectory to make arrangements at least six months (a year is preferred) in advance of the wedding date. It is recommended you do not rent reception facilities until your wedding date is confirmed with the pastor. Your preferred wedding date may be unavailable, and we do not want you to lose your deposit with the reception venue.

Parish Registration: New families are welcome and are asked to register at the rectory. Also, previously registered parishioners are asked to notify us of any address changes.

Emergency Sick or Anointing Calls: Please notify us immediately of any serious illness in your family. If you have a hospitalized loved one who would like a visit, please call the rectory with contact information since the hospitals and hospices no longer notify parishes. Please do not wait until the last minute to have someone anointed. There are always accidents/emergencies, but sometimes there is less panic when the anointing can be done prior to someone passing.

We now have available low-gluten hosts which make it possible for people who have celiac disease or allergies to wheat or gluten to be able to receive communion. If you have celiac disease or an allergy to wheat or gluten, please let us know before Mass so that arrangements can be made for you to be able to receive communion at Mass.
