Eucharistic Revival

Throughout the United States every diocese and parish will celebrate this day in a very special way as we gather as a Church to celebrate the Mass and in many places to have a Eucharistic Procession. Bishop Hicks will be the Principal Celebrant at the 10:30 a.m. Mass at the Cathedral of St. Raymond Nonnatus in Joliet. After the Mass he will lead a Eucharistic Procession carrying the Monstrance around the block on which the cathedral stands. Many of our parishes will also celebrate this Solemnity with a Eucharistic Procession on their grounds and even between parishes. Everyone is welcome to the Mass at 10:30 a.m. and to join in the procession at the end of the Mass. Everyone is also invited to come to the cathedral block around 11:30 a.m. and stand in prayer as the Eucharistic Procession passes by. The procession will end with Benediction inside the Cathedral.

This is the beginning of a three-year celebration of encountering Jesus in the Eucharist and celebrating that encounter by putting our faith into action. Let us all open our spiritual life to this great gift of this Eucharistic Revival with much joy and prayerfulness.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK

The Most Holy Trinity

God our Father, who by sending into the world the Word of truth and the Spirit of sanctification made known to the human race your wondrous mystery, grant us, we pray, that in professing the true faith, we may acknowledge the Trinity of eternal glory and adore your Unity, powerful in majesty. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question: How do I profess my faith in the Trinity in my daily life?

Volunteers Needed

St. Philip the Apostle Parish is looking for a group of volunteers to help us scrub our pews and remove the existing residue from all the sanitization efforts that were performed during the COVID pandemic. If you can donate your time for this effort, please call the rectory at 630-628-0900 and leave your name, phone number, and email address with the parish secretary. Once we get volunteers we will pick dates to schedule the cleaning and we will notify you via email. Thank you in advance for your help! Remember, many hands make light work!

June 2022

Dear Friends,

We will soon take up a collection for Peter’s Pence, which provides essential support for the Holy See’s activities and helps Pope Francis assist the victims of wars, oppression and natural disasters around the world.

The Holy Father’s ministry of mercy this spring has aided victims of a situation with which we are all too familiar: the war in Ukraine. Pope Francis in March donated a fully equipped ambulance to the city of Lviv, the Ukrainian city closest to the Polish border where many refugees have sought shelter. Earlier that month, the pope donated medical supplies such as syringes, bandages, disinfectants and other products to Ukrainian refugees.

Please prayerfully consider supporting this year’s Peter’s Pence collection during the weekend of June 25-26 as an act of mercy and charity. Let us live out the words of Pope Francis expressed in Fratelli Tutti: “I should no longer say that I have neighbors to help, but that I must myself be a neighbor to others.” (Paragraph 81)

Paz y bien,
Most Reverend Ronald A. Hicks
Bishop of Joliet

When we think about the word “mystery,” we often associate it with a problem to be solved. It might even conjure up images of Sherlock Holmes or Scooby Doo or Angela Lansbury. But mystery in the theological sense is different from our typical understanding of the word. Rather than something to be solved, Christian mystery is something that is infinitely knowable. Instead of having a single, finite answer, such as Colonel Mustard in the kitchen with the candlestick, Christian mystery is mysterious in the sense that no matter how much we learn about something, there is still much more for us to know.

God is relational by God’s very nature, and the trine God also invites us into this relationship. As we are created in their image and likeness of God, we take part in this relationship of love that is constantly poured and shared between member. We hear this in today’s second reading, “The love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.” When we respond to this love and share this love, we actively participate in the mystery of the Trinity.

Source: Living Liturgy, Liturgical Press

As difficult as it is to understand the Holy Trinity, I am amazed that Jesus even bothered to tell us about the Father, the Spirit, and himself. As if his own life, his teachings about God’s love, his miracles, his death and resurrection were not enough, he told us something about God that we never would have imagined: There are three Persons in one God. It is also something we cannot completely comprehend. So instead of trying to explain it, let’s look at what it means for us believers. One thing it shows is that God wants to be known by us. Since theologians and spiritual writers have been helping us do that for almost two thousand years, it may not seem like a big deal. But in ancient times, people expected their gods to be mysterious and hidden. Many cultures thought that you could control a spirit or god if you knew its name. So knowing anything about the inner life of a god would be huge. But our God is the only God, whom no one can control. God sees us not as a threat but as beloved children. Just as a couple falling in love wants to know everything about each other, so God wants to be known by those whom God loves. That leads to my second point.

The Trinity also shows us that “God is love” (1 John 4:16) because the three Persons are united in one God. The Persons of the Trinity already love each other perfectly, so God shares that love with us. God calls us to be united in love with God and with each other. Remember that God knows us perfectly and still loves us. How many of us would want another person to know everything about us? Yet knowing our weaknesses and our sins does not hurt God's love for us. On the contrary, our weaknesses allow God to help us by answering our prayers or inspiring someone to come to our assistance. God permits us to sin, knowing that we can experience divine love in forgiveness. We may not be able to grasp the full meaning of the Holy Trinity, but knowing that God shares this with faithful people helps us to love God even more.

Today we celebrate the Holy Trinity: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. This mystery of faith has been pondered throughout the life of the Church by theologians and laypersons. St. Brigid of Ireland used a three-leaf clover to bring an understanding of this concept to the people she served. Three leaves on one stem—although separate, they are still one, always connected to each other. The union of the triune God contains all that brings existence its reality and meaning. The Father, creator of all that is, was, and will be. The Son, who revealed God’s unconditional love which is ever forgiving and who redeems us so we may live as children of God. The Holy Spirit, who guides the hearts of all who are open to Him and gives us the courage to live that life in our world. Today, more than ever, with all the strife and trouble that is happening in our world, the guidance of the Holy Spirit is needed. Opening our hearts and minds to God’s presence will allow us to continue in the mission of spreading the teachings of Christ to love and live in harmony with all.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of the faithful and enkindle in us the fire of your love, then you shall renew the face of the earth.

Who? Father, Son, and Spirit—aka the Trinity and God.

What? The love of God has already been poured into us.

When? Before creation and throughout our salvation down to today.

Why? Because we stand in God's good grace by God's loving design.

How? Ah, that is mystery!

♦ What peace does the Father bring this day?
♦ What does Jesus have to tell me about affliction, endurance, character, hope, and love (see the Romans reading)?
♦ How will I let the Spirit guide me?

Marriage Information: Please call the rectory to make arrangements at least six months (a year is preferred) in advance of the wedding date.
