The disciples were filled with great awe and said to one another,

“WHO THEN IS THIS WHOM EVEN WIND AND SEA OBEY?”

June 20, 2021
Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Prayer of the Faithful

Let us pray to the Lord of all creation for our sisters and brothers throughout the world.

For our Church, tossed about by many stormy waves through the years yet still afloat, may we grow in our faith in Jesus Christ, let us pray to the Lord.

For peace among nations, an end to all oppression, and freedom for all political prisoners, let us pray to the Lord.

For our fathers, grandfathers, uncles, and all those who have loved us and been like fathers to us, those who are living and those who have passed on to eternal life, let us pray to the Lord.

For those who sail and work on the seas and waterways, for their safety and for productive and fruitful employment, let us pray to the Lord.

For the courage to continue working to identify and eliminate racism wherever it may appear in our community, in our country, and in our own lives, let us pray to the Lord.

For all those who are sick, for all who suffer from COVID-19, and for all who have died, let us pray to the Lord.

For all the prayers that we hold in the silence of our hearts; for all our intentions spoken and unspoken, let us pray to the Lord.

Almighty God, the world came about at your command. Deepen in us an unshakeable faith in your goodness and love, and grant these our prayers which we make in Jesus’ name, who is Lord for ever and ever.

Next week, we will take up the Peter’s Pence Collection, which unites us and Catholics around the world more closely with the Holy Father in two ways: it supports the structures of the Holy See through which the Pope governs the Church as well as his charitable efforts to assist victims of war, oppression, natural disasters, and others most in need. Please be generous.

DIOCESE OF JOLIET TO RESUME INTERNATIONAL MISSIONS IN JANUARY

The Diocese of Joliet will resume its international mission program in January with a two-week trip to the Philippines focused on medical care and construction.

This will be the first international mission for the diocese’s Partnership in Mission office since January 2020, shortly before the World Health Organization in March 2020 declared the spread of the Coronavirus a global pandemic.

An informational meeting on the mission trip will be held at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, July 15, at the Blanchette Catholic Center, 16555 Weber Road in Crest Hill. Further information and applications for the trip may be found at http://bit.ly/missionsapplies, or by emailing missions@dioceseofjoliet.org, or calling 815-221-6256.

Interested in joining the Knights of Columbus? Please call 630-337-9072 or visit http://kofc650.org for more information.
The following men will be remembered in Masses once a month for a year under the notation “Fathers’ Day Mass Intention Recipients.” Their names will also be listed in the binder by the votive candle stand in church. Names received after the publication of this bulletin will appear in next week’s bulletin. Thank you for your support of this fundraiser sponsored by the St. Philip the Apostle Religious Education Program. If you have any questions or would like to add names to the list or would like to correct a misspelling, please call 630-543-1754.

Registration is beginning for the 2021/2022 religious education classes! After a year of virtual classes at home, we are pleased to have our children return to their classrooms on Wednesday evenings (Grades 6-8) and Saturday mornings (Grades K-5) in the fall. Please visit our parish website st-phil.org for more information about the coming year, how to register, and to download the forms. Take advantage of the “early bird special” and register by July 1 to save $50.

We will have volunteer opportunities available in the fall. The current need is for classroom aides on Saturday morning and Wednesday evening at each grade level. There will also be openings for catechists in Grades 1, 3, 5, and 8. You do not need a teaching certificate--just a sincere desire to share your faith with our young people. Each volunteer is required to complete Protecting God’s Children along with State of Illinois Mandated Reporter training. We have a wonderful staff of volunteers at St. Philip who will welcome you and mentor you during the year. Please prayerfully consider sharing your faith and your time with the children. It is quite rewarding!

Children who attend the fair will receive a free backpack filled with school supplies!

The event will be a drive-through in order to maintain safe social distancing practices. Registration is mandatory and space is limited, so please register today!

Please visit https://catholiccharitiesjoliet.org/back-to-school-fair-2021-dupage-county/ for more information and to register for the Catholic Charities’ Back to School Fair.

In the first four chapters of Mark’s gospel, Jesus causes plenty of confusion and uncertainty among the people he encounters. Within this man the townspeople of Capernaum find something completely new and baffling that leads them to ask, “What is this?” when Jesus casts out an unclean spirit (1:27; NABRE). The scribes and Pharisees question why he eats with tax collectors and sinners (2:16), dares to break the Sabbath (2:24), and has the audacity to forgive sins (2:7). And in today’s gospel the disciples, “filled with great awe and fear,” turn to each other to ask, “Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?” In today’s gospel, the disciples do not yet know Jesus well enough to trust that they can turn to him in their moment of peril at sea. Instead, as their boat begins to fill with water, they wake him with the questions, “Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?” Despite their lack of faith, Jesus is quick to calm the wind and sea with a stern rebuke, “Quiet! Be still!” As we continue our own path of discipleship, let us keep turning to Jesus in times of trial and times of joy, knowing he is present in the boat beside us whether we encounter stormy weather or calm seas.

REMEMBRANCE DAY
St. Philip the Apostle Church will celebrate a Remembrance Day Mass on July 18 at 8:00 a.m. Below is a red heart which you may use to write the names of any loved ones you have lost over the last year. You may decorate the heart any way you would like, or you may simply write your loved ones’ names. Feel free to make any additional hearts of the same size if needed.

The collected hearts will be displayed in the church for several weeks so we may pray for and remember those lost over the last year. If you are unable to attend the 8:00 a.m. Mass on July 18 when the hearts are collected, but still would like to give a heart, you may drop hearts off in the collection basket at any Mass or mail them to St. Philip Remembrance at 1223 W. Holtz Avenue in Addison, IL 60101. Please return all hearts by July 21.

The LORD is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit. (Psalm 34:18)
Happy Father’s Day! What does it take to be a father? Being a father starts long before a child is born with the decision to love his wife more than he loves himself. The love of man and woman leads to the desire to join God in His creative love that is manifested in the acceptance of children. A father provides for his family—seeing to it that all they need is taken care of: food on the table, clothing, a place to live. Most importantly, a father provides not just a house, but a loving home. As a man grows in his role as a father, he moves from being the provider to a maker and keeper of rules, a disciplinarian. He becomes a teacher and imparts his knowledge and experiences to his children. As the years go by, a father becomes a friend who can be trusted with secrets. These secrets may be dreams or fears. Then the day comes when a father must trust that all he could do has been done and he must let go. He gives his children to the world. His children leave to fulfill what they are destined to do. This does not mean that the father is forgotten. All that a father has handed on to the children is still with them. The wisdom of the father continues to form their decisions and the lives of his children. In time they return to the father and share with him all the good works they have done.

One father is more than a hundred schoolmasters.
(George Herbert)

Baptism Information: Baptisms are celebrated on the second & fourth Sunday of each month. A pre-Baptism program must be attended by the parents. Please call the rectory to register for a program.

Marriage Information: Please call the rectory to make arrangements at least six months (a year is preferred) in advance of the wedding date. It is recommended you do not rent reception facilities until your wedding date is confirmed with the pastor. Your preferred wedding date may be unavailable, and we do not want you to lose your deposit with the reception venue.

Parish Registration: New families are welcome and are asked to register at the rectory. Also, previously registered parishioners are asked to notify us of any address changes.

Emergency Sick or Anointing Calls: Please notify us immediately of any serious illness in your family. If you have a hospitalized loved one who would like a visit, please call the rectory with contact information since the hospitals and hospices no longer notify parishes. Please do not wait until the last minute to have someone anointed. There are always accidents/emergencies, but sometimes there is less panic when the anointing can be done prior to someone passing.

We now have available low-gluten hosts which make it possible for people who have celiac disease or allergies to wheat or gluten to be able to receive communion. If you have celiac disease or an allergy to wheat or gluten, please let us know before Mass so that arrangements can be made for you to be able to receive communion at Mass.
