PRAYER OF THE WEEK
Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

O God, who through the grace of adoption chose us to be children of light, grant, we pray,
that we may not be wrapped in the darkness of error
but always be seen to stand in the bright light of truth.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son,
who lives and reigns with you
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:
Am I someone whom others see as standing in the bright light of truth?

Jesus must have been frustrated when his disciples completely missed the point of his mission and ministry. After being rejected, James and John ask Jesus if they should call down fire from heaven to consume those who did not receive them. Not surprisingly, Jesus rebukes them for this reaction. You can almost imagine Jesus looking at them and saying, "Really?" Following God's path is not always easy. In fact, Jesus' words about not saying goodbye to family or burying one's parent might seem incredibly harsh. Jesus is simply stating, however, that we will always be able to come up with excuses not to follow him. Building the kingdom of God must be our first priority. If we recognize this call, everything else will flow forth from it.

St. Paul has a unique vision of freedom. We often think that freedom means I can do what I want without interference from an outside source, such as a bureaucracy or a dictator. For most Americans, it means being able to take care of myself and my family, hopefully without having to pay too much in taxes. We usually associate that with the "pursuit of happiness" without thinking too much about what happiness is. What makes Paul's idea unique is that his vision of happiness means serving one another in love. For Paul, freedom is not so much being free from oppression as being free to love and serve those around us.

What would stop us from loving others? It could be fear: "I'm not sure I would be able to do any good. I'm afraid of going into a bad neighborhood to help the homeless. I fear that if I were more generous to the poor (church, Red Cross, life issues, etc.), I would not have enough for my family." Or it could be attachment to possessions or even to our family--the man in the Gospel wasn't free to follow Jesus because he thought it meant leaving his family behind.

Paul talks about another kind of freedom when he says that following the Spirit means freedom from the Law (Galatians 5:18). He was not talking about ignoring the speed limit or pirating DVDs. He meant people who were obsessed with keeping all the laws and customs that were part of the Jewish tradition. It would be like someone who goes to Mass on Sunday only because he doesn't want to break a Church law, or someone who drives the speed limit only because he doesn't want to pay a fine. Taken to an extreme, you would have to memorize every law on the books to be sure you did not break one. The freedom of the Spirit is a life lived out of love. A person would go to Mass out of love for God; a driver would obey the speed limit to protect other drivers. As long as we love one another, we wouldn't have to worry about breaking the law, for God's laws are all examples of how to love one another.

Memories can help us through situations in our lives. Recently I had the opportunity to go through some heirlooms and paperwork from four generations of my family. With each item I picked up, I felt not only the historical significance, but also the personal meanings they held for me. It was a reconnection to the past, a reminder of how all who had been part of my family for nearly 150 years. I felt wonder and pride in the accomplishments and heritage that shaped the people around me. Memories can cause a strong emotional response, so strong that it brings a sense of being reconnected with those who have died. It is almost as if we have joined the life that they lived. Our faith in God is based on remembrance. Jesus asks us to participate in his life when we gather around the altar. "Do this in remembrance of me." The stories we share and the examples we follow demonstrate the heritage of our family, the family of God. The days of summer can turn into hectic days, filled with all the things we want to accomplish while the weather is nice along with the usual demands on our lives. Please set aside some time in your busy schedule to reflect on the memories of those in your family who have shown you what is truly important in your life—being family, with God as our Father.

Also, I would like to say "thank you" to all those who helped with the farewell receptions for Fr. Binu last weekend.

Our sympathy to their friends and families.

After his ministry in Galilee, Jesus sets his face for Jerusalem. Many disciples follow him to this destination, his destiny—as should we. For following Jesus is our call. It is our central task. It is our salvation. We do this not alone but with others.

- In following Jesus, what am I called to leave behind?
- In following Jesus, what must I pick up and take with me?
- In following Jesus, what salvation will this bring about?

Jenny Bellezza, Ray Bugielski, Alison Carey, Brian Cherry, Tim Kullum Cherry, Sylvia Culotta, William Czerniak, Michael DeStefano, Leo Di Fazio, Todd Gardener, John Garrett, Lucas Hameau, Anita Harshbarger, Ifrena Holtz, Judy Jaskey, Kroll Family, Jim Lamberti, Shirley Legaspi, Janet Lombardi, Sandra Lundgren, Fred Maglio, Cindy Miles, JoAnne Moberg, Rhodes Modelski, Vito Montana, Geri Mulcahy, Avery Quarles, Frank Reid, John Rossi, Bud Schubert, Stella Shamberg, Chelsea Sladek, Bill Slovik, Wanda Slupik, Louis Sommesi, Mary Taschetta, Jim Wright.

To add names to the list, please call 630-543-1754 or email bnicolai@st-phil.org. Names are deleted from the list after six months unless a request is made for a perpetual listing.*

Baptism Information: Baptisms are celebrated on the second & fourth Sunday of each month. A pre-Baptism program must be attended by the parents. Please call the rectory to register for a program.
Marriage Information: Please call the rectory to make arrangements at least six months (a year is preferred) in advance of the wedding date. It is recommended you do not rent reception facilities until your wedding date is confirmed with the pastor. Parish Registration: New families are welcome and are asked to register at the rectory. Also, previously registered parishioners are asked to notify us of any address changes.

If you have a hospitalized loved one who would like a visit, please call the rectory with contact information since the hospitals and hospices no longer notify parishes. Please do not wait until the last minute to have someone anointed. There are always accidents/emergencies, but sometimes there is less panic when the anointing can be done prior to someone passing.

We now have available low-gluten hosts which make it possible for people who have celiac disease or allergies to wheat or gluten to be able to receive communion. If you have celiac disease or an allergy to wheat or gluten, please let us know before Mass so that arrangements can be made for you to be able to receive communion at Mass.
