For the Lamb who is in the center of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to springs of life-giving water.

PRAYER OF THE WEEK
Fourth Sunday of Easter

Almighty ever-living God,
lead us to a share in the joys of heaven,
so that the humble flock may reach where the brave Shepherd has gone before.
Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God, for ever and ever.

Reflection question:
How can I listen more closely to the voice of the Good Shepherd?

It's time to register your children for fall religious education classes! Students who were enrolled in the program this year brought home registration forms in an envelope they received during their final class of the year. For students in Grades 6 & 7, that class was on April 6; the final class for Grades K-5 was on Saturday, April 9. Registration forms are also available in the literature rack in the church narthex and on the parish website st-phil.org. As always, there is a significant discount if you register your children and pay in full by July 1, 2022.

We are excited to announce a change of day and time for Grades K-5 for the 2022/2023 school year! Classes will meet on Wednesday afternoon from 4:15 to 5:45 p.m. We hope this change will encourage better attendance and enable more families to return to the Religious Education Program. Please note that Grades 6-8 will have a slight time change; classes will remain on Wednesday evening but will run from 6:45 to 8:15 p.m.

If you have been thinking about volunteering in the RE Program and would like to help beginning in the fall, please prayerfully consider the following opportunities: catechist in Grades 3 or 5, or classroom aide in Grades K, 1, 3, or 5. All volunteers are required to complete the Protecting God’s Children training and State Mandated Reporter training. Both are free of charge.

Recently, our fifth graders created dioramas based on the book Narnia by C.S. Lewis. Thought we'd share a photo of a project. Didn't she do an awesome job? Now we know who bought all the cotton balls in Illinois! Thank you, Mrs. Sannasardo, for sharing these photos!

We love to share some of the hands-on experiences of our students! Our sixth graders worked with science teacher Ms. DiRutigliano on Modeling Rock Layers to Determine Relative Age. Doesn't that look like fun?

SCRIP gift cards are available to order throughout the year. Visit shop.shopwithscrip.com to see brands/denominations. Contact Lizzy Roberson at 224-287-5278 or email lizzywroberson@gmail.com for more information. All proceeds are earmarked for the school. Thank you for your support in keeping the St. Philip the Apostle School tuition low.
In Waiting for God, Simone Weil writes that love is a direction. This image is interesting, as instead of insisting that love is manifest in the same static, unchanging actions, it suggests that love looks different in different times and different circumstances. The way we are called to love when we are children looks different from the way we are called to love as we grow in age and faith. The way a single father loves his children might look different than the love a woman has for her elderly mother. And that is OK! The particulars of love can change from situation to situation, but the source and direction of authentic love is always God. This is the intimacy that is often associated with the image of the Good Shepherd. When Pope Francis said that shepherds must smell like the sheep, he reminds us of the intimate relationship between the two. This is our model par excellence. In order to love and serve others we must be close to them, keenly aware of their unique and individual needs, hopes, fears, and dreams. These are not the same for each person. The Good Shepherd shows us how love is a direction.

Last week we saw how the disciples rejoiced to suffer for their faith. This week we see them turn away from their persecutors and begin preaching to the Gentiles. Even though they are thrown out of town, they still are filled with joy (Acts 13:50-52). Rejected by their own people, they are happy that the pagans not only listen to them, but also spread the word of the Lord. What I find interesting is that the disciples’ joy comes from their failure to convert the Jewish leaders in Antioch. If those Jews had become believers and had not rejected Paul and Barnabas, the disciples probably would never have thought to preach to non-Jews about Jesus. I think that failure to convert their own people allowed them to see how God’s power was working for them. That’s why their joy was so great. They were not just congratulating themselves on how well they were preaching. No, they saw how God was doing the real work. That took the pressure off of them. They could stop worrying about every word of their preaching, wondering if they looked holy enough to impress people, or afraid that someone might make fun of them (or do a background check, “Isn’t that Saul, who used to persecute Jesus’ followers? He’s got a lot of nerve thinking he could now be one of them.”). None of that mattered, because they knew that the Spirit was leading them, as our second reading says, “to springs of life-giving water, and God will wipe every tear from their eyes” (Revelation 7:17). They knew they were in God’s hands, as we heard in the Gospel (John 10:28). Can we be like those disciples? Instead of getting angry at frustrations, can we see them as an opportunity to experience God’s grace? Do we let our failures get us down, or do we let God bring us through them, teaching us to rely on the Lord? When people reject us, do we give up, or do we trust God to help them? Are we ashamed of our past sins, or grateful for God’s forgiveness? Of course, the disciples didn’t go around looking for ways to suffer. But they did look for ways to share their great news that Jesus is risen from the dead. Let us ask the Lord to send us the Spirit to show us how we can spread that same news.

Happy Mothers’ Day to all the mothers of our parish! When I think of my mother who died 4 years ago, I remember a person who held our family together throughout our lives. She was also there for many of my cousins, giving of herself in many ways. She, like many women, loved her children and provided for their everyday needs. The list of things that mothers do for their children is endless. If it were a job description it would include: maintaining a household, cooking, cleaning, laundry, nursing, consoleing, refereeing, disciplining—basically always being ready for any situation at any time. Must be available 24/7/365. No pay—except knowing that one day you will be appreciated beyond description and sometimes without knowing. This doesn’t sound like a position that many would apply for. However, this is exactly what the job entails. Those who fill this position are truly loved beyond measure. Today and every day we should say, “Thank you, Mom, because all that you have done and continue to do has made me the person I am. Although I don’t always appreciate what you have done, I wouldn’t be me or have the life I live without you.”

Our sympathy to their friends and families.

Oh, to hear the voice of the One who keeps us safe.
The One who protects us all. The One who leads us to the Father. We do know and believe that this shepherd still speaks today—often very softly.

✦ How will I listen for the voice of the Shepherd every day?
✦ How will I choose to follow the voice of this Shepherd and not other voices?
✦ How can I help others to listen to this voice? And follow?

Baptism Information: Baptisms are celebrated on the second & fourth Sunday of each month. A pre-Baptism program must be attended by the parents. Please call the rectory to register for a program.

Marriage Information: Please call the rectory to make arrangements at least six months (a year is preferred) in advance of the wedding date. It is recommended you do not rent reception facilities until your wedding date is confirmed with the pastor. Your preferred wedding date may be unavailable, and we do not want you to lose your deposit with the reception venue.

Parish Registration: New families are welcome and are asked to register at the rectory. Also, previously registered parishioners are asked to notify us of any address changes.

Emergency Sick or Anointing Calls: Please notify us immediately of any serious illness in your family. If you have a hospitalized loved one who would like a visit, please call the rectory with contact information since the hospitals and hospices no longer notify parishes. Please do not wait until the last minute to have someone anointed. There are always accidents/emergencies, but sometimes there is less panic when the anointing can be done prior to someone passing.

We now have available low-gluten hosts which make it possible for people who have celiac disease or allergies to wheat or gluten to be able to receive communion. If you have celiac disease or an allergy to wheat or gluten, please let us know before Mass so that arrangements can be made for you to be able to receive communion at Mass.
