Fr. Steve Bondi

Fr. John Hornicak

Fr. Larry Brunette

Our pastor, Fr. Steve Bondi, will be undergoing rehabilitation for the next three to four months due to complications from a recent surgery. Bishop Hicks has appointed Fr. John Hornicak, pastor of Holy Ghost Parish in Wood Dale, as our parish administrator effective October 19, 2020, until Fr. Steve is recovered. Fr. Larry Brunette will continue to serve the sacramental and liturgical needs of our parish. We are grateful to both priests for their willingness to serve. Please pray for a quick and full recovery for Fr. Steve. Fr. Hornicak invites St. Philip the Apostle parishioners who celebrate Mass on-line every week to visit the website holychostparish.org for a recording of their weekend Mass.

Just a reminder, with more people coming to Mass on the weekends, it is imperative that you register by calling the parish office (630-628-0900) or on-line through the St. Philip the Apostle website (st-phil.org) beginning Mondays at 9:00 a.m. through Thursdays at 2:30 p.m. Due to social distancing guidelines, we want to ensure seats are available to those who register. As we approach our limits, walk-ins will be seated after all registered attendees are seated.

October 25, 2020 Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time Prayer of the Faithful

God is our rock and our refuge.
Let us pray now to our God on behalf of our world in need.

For God's holy Church as we proclaim Christ to the world by our love for each other and our neighbors, let us pray to the Lord.

For citizens of the world to look out for and support one another, especially caring for refugees and migrants, let us pray to the Lord.

For all those who labor tirelessly for the benefit of others, especially those who work in shelters for people who are homeless, let us pray to the Lord.

For those who are orphaned and widowed, and for all who are in need of compassion and love, let us pray to the Lord.

For those who strive for racial justice and who work to root out systemic racism in the institutions that govern our lives, let us pray to the Lord.

For all those who are sick, for all who suffer from COVID-19, and for all who have died, let us pray to the Lord.

For all the prayers that we hold in the silence of our hearts; for all our intentions spoken and unspoken, let us pray to the Lord.

God of love, you hear the cry of the poor.
Graciously listen to these our prayers and grant them according to your will, through Christ our Lord.

Sunday Readings for October 25, 2020 (Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time)

Reading 1 (Ex 22:20–26)

Thus says the LORD: “You shall not molest or oppress an alien, for you were once aliens yourselves in the land of Egypt. You shall not wrong any widow or orphan. If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry. My wrath will flare up, and I will kill you with the sword; then your own wives will be widows, and your children orphans. “If you lend money to one of your poor neighbors among my people, you shall not act like an extortioner toward him by demanding interest from him. If you take your neighbor’s cloak as a pledge, you shall return it to him before sunset; for this cloak of his is the only covering he has for his body. What else has he to sleep in? If he cries out to me, I will hear him; for I am compassionate.”

Responsorial Psalm (Ps 18:2–3, 3–4, 47, 51)

R. (2) I love you, Lord, my strength.

I love you, O LORD, my strength, O LORD, my rock, my fortress, my deliverer.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

My God, my rock of refuge, my shield, the horn of my salvation, my stronghold!

Praised be the LORD, I exclaim, and I am safe from my enemies.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

The LORD lives and blessed be my rock! Extolled be God my savior.

You who gave great victories to your king and showed kindness to your anointed.

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

Reading 2 (1 Thes 1:5c–10)

Brothers and sisters: You know what sort of people we were among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, receiving the word in great affliction, with joy from the Holy Spirit, so that you became a model for all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For from you the word of the Lord has sounded forth not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has gone forth, so that we have no need to say anything. For they themselves openly declare about us what sort of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God and to await his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus, who delivers us from the coming wrath.

Gospel (Mt 22:34–40)

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law, tested him by asking, “Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?” He said to him, “You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments.”

Laws would be entirely unnecessary if we lived perfect lives. As we know all too well, however, we often fall short of the good intentions that we cherish in our hearts. Perhaps the law would even be unnecessary if we lived alone, isolated from other people. After all, what hermit in a cave actually needs a commandment to charge no interest on a loan? But God’s design for humanity includes togetherness. And when we live together, we tend to step on each other’s toes. Thank God for laws that help us to live in community with justice and compassion. Underlying every one of God’s laws is an eternal longing for fairness and fullness. What’s more, God’s own self—a vibrant community of Father, Son, and Spirit—reveals the deep joy of living in peace with self and neighbor. The Trinitarian nature of God—three persons in one God—astonishes us with its commitment to fruitful love. Love is gratuitous and lavish, constantly producing and giving of itself. The more generously we love God, self, and neighbor, the more we will know that, as Saint Paul says, “love is the fulfillment of the law” (Romans 13:10).

Junior high teens and families of St. Philip the Apostle Parish, along with some catechists and staff...and hopefully YOU, will be sleeping outside overnight on Saturday, November 7, to raise awareness and funds for Bridge Communities. Bridge serves hundreds of families who are homeless in DuPage County by providing transitional housing, education, employment support, and mentoring to men, women, and children who might otherwise be living on streets or in cars right here in our county. Did you know that Bridge provides housing in Addison to several families? This year, more than ever, our help is needed.

This year's Sleep Out Saturday will indeed be different, just as the whole year has been! More families than ever will have the opportunity to participate by sleeping in their own backyards or cars. With fewer obligations this year, and more options for family time, we are hoping this will become a family tradition in a new sense. If you desire, you can also participate by enjoying a soup and bread dinner together and sleeping on the floor inside your home. A virtual rally and client witness talk will be available on Bridge Community's website. Please watch the video prior to November 7 to learn more.

A new challenge for families this year is to ask three or more additional families to participate and to email ten or more people our fundraising letter. Our goal for this year is $5,000. Together, we can make this happen. If you would like to help the teens in their effort to raise funds for Bridge, please visit <http://www.bridgecommunities.org/group110> to make a donation by credit card. If you would prefer to write a check, please make checks payable to Bridge Communities and drop it in the weekend collection basket with Attention: Nancy McKnight on the envelope, or mail it to St. Philip the Apostle RE at 1233 W. Holtz Avenue in Addison, IL 60101. For more information on Bridge Communities or to learn about other ways you can help, please visit their website at www.bridgecommunities.org. Of course, everyone can help us out by keeping us—and the homeless people we are serving—in your prayers. Thank you for your interest and your generosity!

The students' responses to questions posed in the Word of God Project continue to amaze me. The question on October 18 was, "Has there ever been a time when you lost perspective on your loyalty to God? Were you distracted by a busy life, complacency, or materialistic things? How did you change your thinking?" Sixth grader Nicolas Ruberto's responded by writing, "I think it's easy to get distracted by your busy life, but I never lost my loyalty to God. My mom makes sure that I stay on track and reminds me to always make time to pray and make sure I don't forget how important God and my belief in him is. I know as I get older I won't need to be reminded because I practice everyday." Nicolas' catechist Sal Ferenzi responded, "Nicolas, wonderful answer to the question. As you said, you stayed loyal to God, and that is even more important. Your mom sounds like a wonderful teacher, you are very lucky to have someone to keep you on track and reminds you to make time and pray. Practice, like everything else, is very important. Mr. Sal"

Jesus gives us a mission statement in today's gospel for how we are to live our lives as Christians. If we truly want to follow him, we must love God with our whole being and love our neighbor as ourselves. With these two commandments Jesus tells us how to evaluate and discern between the minutiae that make up everyday life. In all things we can ask, by doing this would I be loving God and loving my neighbor? As with all mission statements, if we simply post it on the wall but don't act on it, it won't make any difference in our lives. The sentiments of these two statements—to love God and love neighbor—sound appealing, but what does this really look like when it is lived out? To love God with our whole mind, heart, and soul requires more than a fleeting thought every now and then. We are called to make God our top priority and to put time and effort into this relationship. We come to know God through reading his Word, meeting him in the sacraments, and listening to and talking to him in prayer.

So many of us are feeling anxious or fearful about world events. Spiritual Direction is a wonderful way to help us process what we are feeling as we explore the ways that God is present and at work in our lives, even in the midst of our daily struggles. Mayslake Ministries is a leading Center for Spiritual Direction, and I am honored to be one of their certified spiritual directors on staff and can help you to find healing and hope in these difficult times. Spiritual Direction sessions may be done from the safety of your home via phone, Facetime, or Zoom calls. In-person spiritual direction sessions are also available at Mayslake Ministries' new offices at Ascension Parish in Oakbrook Terrace. Visit the Mayslake Ministries website at www.mayslakeministries.org for more information about spiritual direction or call me.

I would love to walk with you.

Undy Sunday
October 2020

Did you know that new underwear and socks are the most-requested, but least-donated items at Catholic Charities? These basic items (new underwear, warm socks, a fresh diaper) are truly treasures to those who are living in poverty. St. Philip the Apostle Parish is supporting Catholic Charities, Diocese of Joliet and the individuals and families they serve by providing new underwear, undershirts, socks, diapers, and other basic need items for children and adults living in low-income households throughout the month of October.

This year, due to COVID-19, Catholic Charities is requesting donations in either of the two following ways:

Undy Sunday Amazon Wish List:

Choose from a list of most-needed items and your donation will be sent directly to Catholic Charities to help those in need.

Monetary Donations to support Undy Sunday:

Donations made to Undy Sunday will be used to purchase the items needed by Catholic Charities' clients.

Please visit

<https://catholiccharitiesjoliet.org/undy-sunday/> to make a donation or view the Amazon Wish List.

If you'd prefer to send a check directly to Catholic Charities, please mail it to: Catholic Charities, Diocese of Joliet/Undy Sunday, 16555 Weber Road, Crest Hill, IL 60403

For more information on Undy Sunday, please email Maggie Snow at msnow@cc-doj.org. Thank you for making a difference in the lives of the poor and vulnerable in our community, particularly during this difficult time.

“Love one another as I have loved you.” This is the command of Jesus to his apostles, disciples, and all who choose to follow Him. These seven words sum up all we need to know in order to live in Christ who gave all he is out of love for us. Our actions and words display the depth of love we hold for each other. In our country these days it is becoming easier not to choose love for those who don't agree with us. This challenge is directly opposed to our mission in life to bring forth a sense of community, not just in Addison, but throughout all the communities in which we live. These communities include our families, work places, and even our nation and world. Can I do anything outside of my immediate sphere of family, friends, and co-workers? How can I make a difference in the world today? After all, I am only one person... Maybe those were the thoughts of Jesus in Gethsemane, as his humanity struggled with his divinity. We are not the Messiah, but our actions do affect many people, even people we may never meet due to the fact that we are all connected to others. These connections are from our common bond of being part of God's family. God made all of mankind, so our relationship is familiar through God our Father. We are capable of loving each other without agreeing on all things. The respect we show when we have differing opinions can lead to new understanding and growth, both intellectually and spiritually. One person can make a difference in our world, especially if love is the motivating force.

ABORTION ALTERNATIVES: Waterleaf (630-701-6270), Post Abortion Healing (877-467-3463), Birthright (800-550-4900, 24 hours)

Baptism Information: Baptisms are celebrated on the second & fourth Sunday of each month. A pre-Baptism program must be attended by the parents. Please call the rectory to register for a program.

Marriage Information: Please call the rectory to make arrangements at least six months (a year is preferred) in advance of the wedding date. It is recommended you do not rent reception facilities until your wedding date is confirmed with the pastor. Your preferred wedding date may be unavailable, and we do not want you to lose your deposit with the reception venue.

Parish Registration: New families are welcome and are asked to register at the rectory. Also, previously registered parishioners are asked to notify us of any address changes.

Emergency Sick or Anointing Calls: Please notify us immediately of any serious illness in your family. If you have a hospitalized loved one who would like a visit, please call the rectory with contact information since the hospitals and hospices no longer notify parishes. Please do not wait until the last minute to have someone anointed. There are always accidents/emergencies, but sometimes there is less panic when the anointing can be done prior to someone passing.

We now have available low-gluten hosts which make it possible for people who have celiac disease or allergies to wheat or gluten to be able to receive communion. If you have celiac disease or an allergy to wheat or gluten, please let us know before Mass so that arrangements can be made for you to be able to receive communion at Mass.
