THE MISSION OF OUR PARISH

As members of the Diocese of Joliet, we are a faith community united in Christ by a common bond to the universal Catholic Church. Our words and actions are a reflection of Christ's presence among us. We manifest God's Word through active participation in spiritual, liturgical, educational, service, and social ministries directed at bringing all people to Christ.

Thanks to all the Catechists and assistants for committing to return to class January 8 and begin the winter/spring session of classes. It is hard to believe that we are in the new year of 2025 already. There are so many exciting opportunities ahead to aid our students to become closer with their relationship with our loving God. That is our prayer and goal for the children.

My New Year's resolution is to try to listen to God's word more than I have in the past and open my heart and set aside my own personal preferences and agendas, and become more humble. May God bless all of us to strive to listen to him when he speaks to us.

Letters to the Parish

Preparing for the Sacrament of Confirmation

As part of their preparations for Confirmation on February 15, 2025, the eighth-grade students from the school and the Religious Education Program wrote letters to St. Philip parishioners. The letter below is from Bradley Tran, a student in the St. Philip the Apostle Religious Education Program. Please keep Bradley and all of our students in your prayers as they continue their preparations toward adulthood in the Church.

Dear St. Philip the Apostle Parish,

I want to be confirmed because I want to become a member of the church by my own choice. I am ready to become confirmed now because I want to be a member of the church and be confirmed. After I am confirmed I would go to church every Sunday I am able to and help out people in my community. My family goes to church every Sunday. We go to church every Sunday we can. Most of us participate in the church by singing in the choir, altar serving, passing out papers, collecting donations, and so many other things in the church. My family taught me to go to church and pray. I chose my sponsor because my uncle is a nice person that shows what a person of god is. He helps out as much as he can and is a nice person overall. Sincerely, Bradley Tran

A while ago I quoted saints using Matthew Kelly's book, The Wisdom of the Saints. I found a few more interesting quotes in his book, Beautiful Eucharist.

"Encountering Jesus in the Eucharist should be like touching Heaven, and that should change the way we live here on earth! All the answers are in the tabernacle." Matthew Kelly

"The happiness you are seeking, the happiness you have a right to enjoy has a name and a face: it is Jesus of Nazareth, hidden in the Eucharist." Pope Benedict XVI

"This morning my soul is greater than the world since it possesses You, You whom heaven and earth do not contain." St. Margaret of Cortona

"The most deadly poison of our times is indifference. And this happens although the praise of God should know no limits. Let us strive therefore to praise him to the greatest extent of our powers." St. Maximilian Kolbe

"We become what we love and who we love shapes what we become." St. Clare of Assisi

"Lord, I leave the past in Your mercy, the future in Your providential care and the present moment in Your Love." St. Padre Pio

Sunday 10:00 a.m.	Lector: LaVerne Tedeski Extraordinary Ministers: Deacon Phil Heitz, Rich Truppa, Nanette Truppa, Cathy Kluczny, Andy Kluczny Altar Servers: Emilio Accolti, Mason Lofton Ushers: Angela Addante, Pat Corcione, Joe Bien, Dave Marshall, Rudy Tamondong

"I am not capable of doing big things, but I want to do everything, even the smallest things, for the greater glory of God." St. Dominic Savio

"All the darkness in the world cannot extinguish the light of a single candle." St. Francis of Assisi

"We do pray for mercy; and that same prayer doth teach us all to render the deeds of mercy." William Shakespeare

"Pray to be ever ready for God's will even when it takes you by surprise." St. Mary MacKillop

"Lay all your cares about the future trustingly in God's hands, and let yourself be guided by the Lord just like a little child." St. Edith Stein

"Reason is in fact the path to faith, and faith takes over when reason can say no more." Thomas Merton

When I was participating in a management course, I was advised to never ask anyone to do something that I was not willing to do myself. I was also told that this would not only build my credibility, but it would help form a bond with that individual. This lesson rang true throughout my life. When we do something that there is no need for us to do, the example shows a willingness to humble oneself to the betterment for all.

Today as we celebrate the Baptism of our Lord, we hear of this kind of humility that Jesus undertook in obedience to the Father and leads us on the path of salvation through the waters of our own baptism. Most of us do not remember that day when we were brought into the family of God. The day we first received the saving power of God, in the first sacrament. The day we became beloved sons and daughters of God.

We were anointed as priest, prophet and king with the Chrism of salvation. The role of all the baptized is to grow in the love of God and to love our neighbor as God loves us.

On this day we can recommit ourselves to this calling by deepening our knowledge of the Father and actively spreading his love by our words and actions. This resolution can be renewed every day of our lives as we encounter friends and those we have not yet met in our interactions at every moment of our lives, to truly be his disciples with compassion, understanding and acceptance.

In doing so we too will hear that God is well pleased with us.

Peace, Deacon Sean

Baptism Information: Baptisms are celebrated on the second & fourth Sunday of each month. A pre-Baptism program must be attended by the parents. Please call the rectory to register for a program.

Marriage Information: Please call the rectory to make arrangements at least six months (a year is preferred) in advance of the wedding date. It is recommended you do not rent reception facilities until your wedding date is confirmed with the pastor. Your preferred wedding date may be unavailable, and we do not want you to lose your deposit with the reception venue.

Parish Registration: New families are welcome and are asked to register at the rectory. Also, previously registered parishioners are asked to notify us of any address changes.

Emergency Sick or Anointing Calls: Please notify us immediately of any serious illness in your family. If you have a hospitalized loved one who would like a visit, please call the rectory with contact information since the hospitals and hospices no longer notify parishes. Please do not wait until the last minute to have someone anointed. There are always accidents/emergencies, but sometimes there is less panic when the anointing can be done prior to someone passing.

Pulpit Announcements & Bulletin Deadlines: Parish staff reserves the right to accept/decline/edit pulpit announcements and bulletin submissions. Please submit pulpit announcements to Deacon Phil Heitz (pheitz@st-phil.org; 630-628-0900 x104) no later than the Thursday preceding the desired weekend. Please send bulletin submissions to Cathy (cjaskey@st-phil.org) a week prior to desired publication date.

Support our local businesses! We ask that you remember our parish bulletin advertisers in any way you can. We want to express our extreme gratitude for everything that they do. They are the financial resource for the bulletin which helps us to stay in touch with you. As you can, please patronize these businesses that do so much for St. Philip the Apostle and our community. Let them know you are from St. Philip's too! Please keep them in your prayers as well.

We have low-gluten hosts available which make it possible for people who have celiac disease or allergies to wheat or gluten to be able to receive communion. If you have celiac disease or an allergy to wheat or gluten, please let us know before Mass so that arrangements can be made for you to be able to receive communion at Mass.

The Holy Spirit affirms Jesus as the Christ, the beloved Son of God.
